EDUCATORS FIGHT OVER PRESIDENCY

National Association Elects E. T. Fairchild in Heated Contest.

FAVOR SUFFRAGE FOR WOMEN

Candidacy of Miss Strachan for President of National Educational Association Precipitates A Wordy War

Chicago, July 10.—Aside from electing as president E. T. Fairchild, of Topeka, Kas., after a heated contest in which Chicago teachers were severely criticised by New York members for "behind the curtain tactics," the National Education Association, representing more than 15,000 educators, today went on record as favoring:

Woman suffrage, "because women teachers realize the responsibility of training youth for citizenship."

Promotion of international peace.

An investigation of teachers' salaries throughout the country with reference to the high cost of living.

A uniform Federal law for marriage and divorce.

The promotion of plans for a National university.

The extension by Congress of plans for training in agriculture, domestic economy and other industrial work in various institutions.

Greater attention in the public schools to the health of pupils.

The extension by Congress of the National Bureau of Education so as "to embody a group of competent men and women to study thoroughly the problem of rural education, city school administration, advocational education, sanitation and hygiene and higher education, including the training of teachers.

More attention by teachers to the individual necessities of pupils for a training that will fit them for a definite occupation for life.

That school playgrounds provide at least one square for each pupil.

That a greater spirit of altruism be inspired in school work.

The association condemned compulsory military training in schools not especially designated as military schools.

The candidacy of Miss Grace C. Strachan, district superintendent of schools, Brooklyn, N. Y., for president in opposition to Mr. Fairchild brought on the fight of the day. After the nominating committee had reported in favor of Mr. Fairchild, Miss Strachan's friends openly charged he had been selected at a caucus to which the New York members had not been invited. Miss Katherine D. Blake and Mathila Coffin Ford, of New York, accused the Chicago teachers of conducting their campaign "behind the curtain" of the auditorium where the convention was held. They asserted a delegation from the Chicago Principals Club had gone to New York to induce Miss Strachan to withdraw, although Miss Strachan two years ago at Boston had supported Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, of Chicago, for president.

Mrs. Strachan herself took the floor and charged the Chicago teachers had attempted to make capital out of the fact that she brought a letter of introduction from Mayor Gaynor, of New York, to Mayor Harrison, of Chicago.

"I am sorry to say I would have thought a great deal more of Chicago people and Chicago tactics had I remained away," said Miss Strachan.

The statements caused Miss Margaret A. Haley, of the Chicago Teachers' Federation, to circulate an affidavit in which she gave her version of the Chicago teachers' meeting in New York with Miss Strachan. She shaid that while the Chicago teachers recognized the work done by Miss Strachan to secure equal pay for men and women teachers in New York, still they sought to impress upon her that it would be unwise for her to run for president "at a time when it was hoped progressive amendments to the by-laws, intended to democratize the association, would be passed." She asserted that to promote Miss Strachan would be to endanger the by-laws.

Miss Haley declared that at the New York conference a woman advised Miss Strachan to secure a letter from Mayor Gaynor to Mayor Harrison, and then to induce Mayor Harrison to urge Mrs. Young, superintendent of Chicago schools, to support the New York candidate.

Miss Haley, further declared a Miss McLeary, at the meeting, urged Miss Strachan to "induce a good friend of a book company to help her out."

Miss Haley declared she told all the New York members that while such methods might do in New York they would not do in Chicago.

Miss Strachan then took the floor and charged the Chicago teachers with attempting to "control" not only the present election but future elections.

Whatever friends she had in the book business, she said, were those who had known her for years, and to intimate that she might be influenced by them was unjust.

A motion to substitute Miss Strachan's name for that of Mr. Fairchild was lost and Mr. Fairchild was declared elected.

Dr. Joseph Swain, president of Swarthmore College, reported on an investigation conducted in Denver, Cincinnati, Atlanta and New Haven, Conn., of teachers' salaries in relation to the high cost of living. He said that 1,705 replies had been received to questions that had been sent out. The replies showed a need of higher salaries commensurate with a higher efficiency, he said.

The convention adopted a resolution authorizing the committee on teachers' salaries and the cost of living to take steps to bring its findings to the attention of Congress and the President of the United States.

Among the vice presidents elected today was Miss Ada Van Stom Harris, of Virginia.

PERSONAL DEBATE STIRS THE HOUSE

Representatives Hill and Reilly of Conneticut Almost Come to Blows.

FEUD IS OF LONG STANDING

The Trouble Began When Mr. Hill Launched Into A Political Speech Criticising the Labor Views Of Gov. Wilson

Washington, July 10.—A fierce political debate, which came perilously close to fisticuffs, created a furore in the House today. The participants were Representatives Hill and Reilly, of Connecticut, the former a Republican and the latter a Democrat. Bitter feeling between them, beginning with Mr. Reilly's election, increased last Winter when Mr. Reilly attacked Mr. Hill in a speech in the House.

The trouble today began when Mr. Hill, without warning launched into a political speech criticising the labor views of Governor Woodrow Wilson. He said Mr. Wilson in addressing the Princeton University graduating class in 1909 assailed labor organizations on the ground that they made for "unprofitable servants" by "hampering the individuality of their members." Mr. Hill declared that the re-election of President Taft was assured.

"Mr. Chairman," shouted Mr. Reilly, "the gentleman is much more confident of the election of William Howard Taft than he was at a recent meeting of Connecticut postmasters."

Mr. Reilly held aloft a letter which he said he had "providentially" received then. His informant wha had heard Mr. Hill address the convention of postmasters quoted Mr. Hill as saying that there would be many familiar faces fissing around the board "if they did not do better work in the next election than they did in the last," and as admonishing his hearers to "take off their coats and work openly for the continuation of the administration.

Angrily advancing down the aisle, Mr. Reilly declared that Mr. Hill had personally attacked him in that speech. He quoted from Mr. Hill's alleged remarks: "Behold the man you have sent to Washington to represent this district. Do you know what he is doing? He is voting with the Southern Democrats to destroy the manufacturers of Connecticut."

Mr. Reilly vehemently denied that his vote was cast for tariff measures that would jeopardize the manufacturing interests of the country. "I am sick and tired of hearing the gentleman from Connecticut," he cried, "claiming to know all of tariff legislation, compared with the distinguished gentleman from New York, Mr. Payne is a mere piker. No one knows anything but the gentleman from Connecticut. I say I am sick and tired of hearing him, under the guise of protecting the American workingman, getting up here and feeding them with speeches on the tariff."

Mr. Reilly referred to Mr. Hill's speeches on the tariff as "buncombe." Throughout his arraignment, Mr. Hill vainly sought to interrupt. When he got the floor he was trembling with anger.

Standing in front of the Speaker's desk, Mr. Hill shot a menancing fist in his colleague's direction and charged him with having unfairly and knowingly assailed him in a speech last Winter.

"He did it deliberately," shouted Mr. Hill. "He might have known his charges were false if he had wished to have known it. The gentleman from Connecticut suppressed the facts on this floor. I say that statements of that kind, coming from any man, Republican or Democrat, not only are not worth the paper they are written on, but they make the man unworthy of any credence whatever, either now or in the future."

The two Connecticut members, with eyes ablaze, were close to each other. A number of members shifted to positions nearer the theatre of action. The assistant sergeant-at-arms also took up positions of vantage. Mr. Hill, however, turned on his heel and sought his seat.

Atlanta, July 10.—Charles C. Birshmore, a young business man, fell out of a seventh story window in an apartment house and was instantly killed here early this morning. It is not known whether he was walking in his sleep or fell while trying to raise a window. He for 16 years was the private secretary of Hamilton McWhorter, of Augusta.

THIRD PARTY FOR TARIFF REVISION

Bull Moose Organization Will Likely Declare for Lower Duties.

ROOSEVELT IS NON-COMMITAL

The Colonel Favors A Protective Policy and Will Leave the Matter For the Convention at Chicago to Decide

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 10.—Immediate downward revision of the tariff is likely to be one of the demands made by the new party headed by Colonel Roosevelt. While the former President was no-commital today regarding the course he would urge the Chicago convention of the party to adopt, it developed from the talk of a number of leaders today who have conferred with Colonel Roosevelt in the last few days that the party doubtless would call for immediate revision. According to the present programme, the demand for legislation will be restricted to the schedules which in the opinion of the party heads are obviously higher. The woolen and cotton schedules were pointed out as perhaps the best examples.

Whether the platform will enumerate specific schedules and pledge itself to scale them downward or will content itself with a general declaration of the principle upon which it will act has not been decided.

Colonel Roosevelt has been told that the sentiment of the country especially in the West, where his largest measure of support is looked for is emphatically in favor of quick action on the tariff. The election of a Democratic majority in the House of Representatives in 1910 was cited in support of the argument that the progressive party must pledge itself to downward revision.

The ex-President feels, however, that his views on the theory of a protective tariff are well-known and that it is for the convention to decide what course of action is to be adopted.

When questioned today in regard to his views of what the new party should do, Colonel Roosevelt said that in the near future he would make a statement of his position upon the various issues to be raised in the campaign.

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT.

Cities Sweter and Crops Are Scorched by Heat Wave.

Washington, July 10.—A few tantalizing thunder storms that pattered vainly on burned fields and steaming pavements were the only promises of relief tonight from the wave of humid heat that has deluged the country. From East and West tonight the Weather Bureau received reports of generally increased temperatures. Behind the stolid figures came a story of sweltering cities and scorched farms. Increased death rates in the overcrowded cities, and general suffering as a result of the heavy, oppressive heat, were generally recorded.

"There is no relief in sight," said the forecaster at the Weather Bureau tonight. The heat wave, from all indications, will probably continue for some time."

The National capital sweltered under a blazing sun throughout the day, with legislators courting electric fans and cooling drinks.

Hot weather and the vacation spirit combined today to drive the House leaders almost to despair, for they were virtually unable to command quorums either on the floor or in the committees. Today was set aside for consideration of the Naval Appropriation bill by a naval affairs sub-committee, but not enough members appeared.

Other committees today were without quorums and could transact no business.

BIG RALLY DAY AT MAXTON

Grand Educational Rally at Carolina College Park July 24th

(Fayetteville Observer.)

The people of Maxton will observe Wednesday, July 24th, as educational rally day, to celebrate the work done on Carolina College, which is nearing completion. Arrangements are being made to entertain several thousand people. A picnic dinner will be served, several good speakers are on the programme, and a brass band will furnish music. Everybody is invited, and it is hoped that all the adjoining counties in this State and South Carolina will be represented. Make arrangements now to be Maxton's guest Wednesday, July 24th.

Roanoke, Va., July 10.—At a meeting here today of the board of visitors of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at Blacksburg, the resignation of P. B. Barringer, president of the school, tendered to become effective at once, was accepted, but the board requested him to continue as head of the institution for one year more. Dr. Barringer has not yet intimated his plans for the future.

LORIMER CASE IS NEARING THE END

Right of Illinois Senator To His Seat Will Soon Be Decided

SPEAKS FOR HIMSELF TODAY

After Two Short Speeches, Senator Lorimer Will Begin His Defense—Vote is Expected Within the Next Forty-Eight Hours.

Washington, July 10.—The right of William Lorimer, of Illinois, to his seat in the United States Senate, will be decided within the next 48 hours. This much seemed certain after today's seven hours discussion, featured by speeches by Senators Johnstone, of Alabama, and Johns, of Washington, for the pro-Lorimer forces.

Besides the closing plea of Mr. Lorimer, the programme still incudes speech-making by Senators Lea, of Tennessee, and Thornton, of Louisiana, and possibly a further general discussion of the legal points involved. The Lea and Thornton speeches are expected to be brief. Senator Lorimer, who occupied several days in his self-defense in the last Congress, may conclude in one session, but any general discussion is likely to postpone action until Friday.

Mr. Johnstone condemned Theodore Roosevelt for his refusal to sit at the same table with Lorimer, and like Senator Dillingham, declared that he would vote for Lorimer even if it cost him his own seat. Senator Jones also criticised Colonel Roosevelt for heaping "obloquy" on Lorimer, and charged that President Taft had attempted to influence Senators, the judges in the case, against Lorimer.

Mr. Jones said the President's yielding to public clamor is a blot on his public record never to be effaced.

The Senator contended that Senator Lorimer could not be subjected to a second trial, that the testimony at the second investigation only discredited what had been brought out before and that "to vacate our former decision would be to fly into the faces of all the courts of Christendom."

ARMY MANEUVERS

Troops Work Out Problems of Attack and Defense

Anniston, Ala., July 10.—Problems in attack and defense were introduced intoday's maneuvers at Camp Pettus, the troops being taken over a territory several miles in extent. Tomorrow's programme includes the working out of problems for regiments involving advance guard, rear guard, flank guard and outposts. Major Hutton, chief of the sanitary corps, has enforced strict rules and the camps now are models of clean lines. There are four bands in camp and concerts are given each night.

Major Wickle stated today that the camp had established an excellent record for good order, only two arrests having been made so far for violation of city ordinances.

New York, July 10.—The unfilled tonnage of the United States Steel Corporation on June 29 totalled 5,807,346 tons.

THAW DEFENSE SCORES AGAIN

Two Alienists, Giving Last of the Expert Testimony, Declare That the Slayer of Stanford White is Now Sane.

White Plains, N. Y., July 10.—The last of the expert testimony by alienists was given in the Harry K. Thaw hearing today when Dr. William A. White, head of the Federal asylum for the insane at Washington, and Dr. Charles K. Mills, a lecturer at Columbia University, on mental diseases, gave it as their positive opinions that the slayer of Stanford White is now sane.

The head of the Federal asylum declared that at his institution "constitutional inferiority was not considered cause for the detention of enlisted men." He asserted that Thaw's characterization of Stanford White as a "gorilla" and a "balckguard" was emotionally justified.

The Thaws felt that they had scored a point in the afternoon, when William M. K. Olcott, formerly Thaw's lawyer, testified that in 1906 he had agreed to the idea of sending Thaw to an insane asylum without trial. The Thaws contended that this admission dissipated Thaw's alleged delusion that his counsel and his alienists were in a conspiracy with the district attorney's office in 1906 to send him to an asylum without trial.

Anthony Comstock, president of the Society for the Prevention of Vice, told on the stand of investigations of reports of mistreatment of young women made to him by Thaw. He said that conditions were as Thaw reported. It is believed the case will reach the summing up stage by Monday.

HELD UP TRAIN, GOT NOTHING.

Six Masked Bandits Boarded M. K. & T. Train in Kansas.

Parsons, Kas., July 10.—Missouri, Kansas & Texas train No. 9, known as the "Katy Limited," which left here at 10 o'clock last night, was held up by six masked men near Coffeyville, Kas., early today. The bandits held the train two hours during which the passengers and trainmen were guarded in the coaches by two robbers while the others made seven unsuccessful attempts to blow open the safe in the baggage car. No effort was made to rob the passengers and no one was injured.

The robbers left on their own accord, fearing they might be surprised by the approach of another train or the arrival of officers who might have been sent to learn what was delaying the train. No arrests have been made.

Coffeyville, Kas., July 10.—Four men held up southbound limited passenger train No. 9 on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad, three miles south of here early today and after nine unsuccessful attempts to blow the express safe they were frightened away. Meagre reports reaching here say the robbers obtained nothing.

The train was due in Oklahoma City at 6:40 this morning.

Soon after the hold-up was reported, posses were organized and a search begun in the hills south of Bartlettsville, Okla.

Washington, July 10.—Carlos Arosemena, son of the President of Panama, has arrived here in the hope it is said, of inducing the State Department to change its plans for American supervision of the National elections in Panama next Sunday. There was some dissatisfaction with the outcome of the recent municipal elections in Panama which were under the supervision of American commissioners.

WANTS GREATEST BATTLESHIP

Senator Tillman Would Have Government Construct Most Powerful Dreadnaught Possible and Stop Awhile

Washington, July 10.—Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, sought to launch in the Senate a movement to have the United States build the best battleship the world can ever construct and then withdraw from the international race for big battleships, but the movement stuck in the ways.

The South Carolina Senator had his battleship resolution all prepared and showed it to numerous Senators, but decided to defer its presentation on account of the Lorimer case having right-of-way.

Senator Tillman would name the proposed dreadnaught the "Terror." He would provide the maximum thickness of armor, the maximum size of gun, the maximum speed and the maximum size that would enter drydocks and pass through the Panama canal. Senator Tillman preferred the name "Terror" to Skeered O'Nuthin," suggested once by Senator John Sharp Williams in the House as the name for an American ship outranking in size the English dreadnaughts.

Senator Tillman's resolution would call upon the Naval Affairs Committee to investigate the details of the very best battleship possible and to report whether one such over powering vessel would not be better for the United States than to continue "by increasing taxation, to spend the millions and millions of dollars now in prospect in the race for naval supremacy."

"Let us find out just how far we can go with any degree of safety and go there at once." said Senator Tillman. "Let the 'Terror' become the peacemaker of the world; let us leave some money in the treasury for other and more necessary and useful expenditures such as good roads, controlling the floods in the Mississippi, draining the swamp lands in the South and irrigating the arid land in the West."

NO ADDITIONAL DEATHS.

But Three Members of Poisoned Family Are Dying.

Augusta, Ga., July 10.—There were no additional deaths today among the members of the Canady family, of Emmanuel county, who were poisoned at a family reunion dinner on July 4th, although three of the sufferers are said to have little chance of recovery. According to reports made to the county authorities by physicians, 53 persons were poisoned, of whom four have since died, and three, Mrs. Canady and her two children, are in a dying condition.

The others, it is said, will recover. Barbecue meat, the seasoning for which had been prepared in a zinc tub, was served at the dinner and is supposed to have become tainted with the seasoning preparation. All available nurses in the county have been engaged to attend the victims.

THOS. B. MILLS HEAD ELKS.

Dr. C. H. Ward, of California, is Chosen Grand Loyal Knight.

Portland, Ore., July 10.—Thomas B. Mills, of Superior, Wis., was elected Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks today by acclamation.

Dr. C. H. Ward, of Pasadena, Cal., was elected Grand Loyal Knight, and Edward Leach, of New York, No. 1, was re-elected treasurer.

Rochester, N. Y., probably will be selected as the convention city for 1913, all opposition having been withdrawn.

PROHIS DENOUNCE TAFT AND TEDDY

Chairman Howard Calls the President Wet Nurse to the Saloons.

INSURGENT MOVEMENT BEGINS

Some Delegates to National Prohibition Convention Which Opened Yesterday Favor More Aggressive Attitude.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 10.—The 11th National Prohibition convention got under way here today, but progressed little beyond the preliminaries of organization. There were developments enough, however, to indicate a strong undercurrent of "insurgency" in the party and to forecast a fight by some of the delegates for a more progressive and aggressive attitude in the coming campaign.

The feature of the day was the address of the temporary chairman of the convention, Clinton N. Howard, of Rochester, N. Y., known as "The Little Giant."

Mr. Howard aroused the thousand or more delegates to a high pitch of enthusiasm by roudly denouncing President Taft, Col. Roosevelt and the Republican and Democratic parties in general. He claimed that the Prohibitionists were the real progressives in politics and decried any attempt to throw their votes into other channels.

"We already have two whiskey parties and don't need another," he shouted. The delegates caught up and cheered the sentiments of the chairman. When he characterized President Taft as a "wet nurse to the saloons," there were shouts of "amen," from all corners of the convention hall. When he denounced Col. Roosevelt "as the least desirable of all the candidates," there was a prolonged demonstration of approval.

Governor Woodrow Wilson he disposed of with this faint praise: "A good man, perhaps, but we have had 'good men' in the White House before and they have gone out with the country more saturated with rum than it was when they went in."

"Now you are talking the truth," called a delegate amid general acclaim. So enthusiastic were the delegates over Chairman Howard's address that they ordered it printed as a campaign textbook and started a genuine boom for Mr. Howard for President. His candidacy loomed large tonight and as the field is decidedly an open one, he is regarded as one of the potential factors in the race.

There was insurgency today in the Pennsylvania delegation when A. A. Stevens was ousted from the National Committee and John E. Gill chosen in his place. D. B. McCalmont, the second member of the committee from Pennsylvania, was re-elected. Each State has two members in the National committee. Friends of Mr. Stevens declare the Pennsylvania caucus was premature and threaten to take an appeal to the convention.

Late today Southern delegates to the convention proposed as a candidate for the Presidential nomination Andrew Jackson Houston, of Beaumont, Texas. Houston is son of Gen. Sam Houston. He is a lawyer and a staunch supporter of the Prohibition party. The Southern leaders have begun an active campaign in his behalf.

The convention tonight chose Dr. Charles H. Meade, of New Jersey, permanent chairman and Mrs. Frances Beauchamp, of Kentuckyl, ptrmanntnt secrttary.

J. D. Rtdd, of Ktntucky, presenttd the report of the committee on credentials, declaring that there was not ces Beauchamp, of Kentucky, permanent secretary.

J. D. Redd, of Kentucky, presented en chairman of the committee on resolutions, which sat until a late hour tonight planning the platform of the party.

DOG DIES TO SAVE BOY MASTER.

Youngster Escapes With Bruise—Pet Crushed Under Auto.

Cincinnati, July 10.—To save his master, five-year-old Clarence Whitney, of 2037 Hewitt avenue, the youngster's pet dog gave up his own life under the wheels of an automobile.

The little fellow crossing Madison road, near the home of Senator Foraker, this morning did not see an automobile driven by Miss Margaret Payne rapidly approaching. The faithful animal sensed the danger and grabbed his juvenile master by the trousers and tried to drag him out of the path of danger.

The machine was so close that the animal could not get the child entirely out of the road. The lad was struck a glancing blow that knocked him down, but did not cause any serious injury. The dog was caught under the wheels and crushed to death.

Clarence was picked up by Adolph Sweitzer, an employe ot the home of Senator Foraker, and taken to a physician, who said he was not hurt beyond slight bruises.

Washington, July 10.—Secretary Fisher, of the Interior Department, flatly denied today that Indian Commissioner Robert Valentine had resigned. It was reported, however, that because of recent criticism aimed at him, Mr. Valentine might quit in the near future.

FOR $25 REWARD

Atlanta Man Turned Informer on Naval Deserter

Atlanta, July 10.—For the sake of a $25 reward some nameless Atlantian has turned informed on Arthur Vining, a well-known young man of this city, who is alleged to have deserted from the United States navy years ago—he entered when he was only 15—and who since that time has been engaged in steady employment here.

Young Vining had practically forgotten all about his youthful escape. At least he had ceased to worry about it. He had told the whole thing to his father, W. S. Vining, a well-known city official and the circumstances were known to the intimate friends of the family. Entering when he did not know his own mind, he had simply run away, like a boy from school. There was nothing dishonorable behind it.

But after this lapse of years, just as the young man was getting on well in his chosen vocation, somebody—he thinks it was some friend in whom he confided—turned him up for the sum of twenty-five dollars, which is the price paid by the United States to such informers, and the boy has been taken to the prison ship at Norfolk.

The family and friends of young Vining are naturally very bitter toward the unknown informer and if his identity is disclosed he will not be very popular in Atlanta, for Vining was a well-liked boy, and twenty-five pieces of silver are not even as many as thirty.

TO CLEAN UP BUCKETSHOPS

Government Agents Learn They Are Again Flourishing

New York, July 9.—An investigation recently started by government agents here probably will result shortly in another wholesale clean up of bucketshops such as took place in 1910, when so many arrests and indictments were recorded that the government attorneys confidently believed they had broken up the practice for many years to come.

Recently, however, information reached the government agents that hundreds of small bucketshops were being operated in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and the New England States not to mention Canada. These are said to have their principal central offices in New York city, Cleveland, Albany, Boston, Pittsburg and Buffalo.

THEIR CONDITION CRITICAL.

Federals and Not Rebels Bane of the Mormons.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 10.—That the Federal troops rather than the rebels are the bane of the Mormon colonists in Mexico, is asserted in a telegram received by the Mormon Church authorities from Bishop Lillywhite, of Colonia Morelos, Sonora. The message says:

"Condition of colonists in Sonora critical. Hundred Madero soldiers quartered on us for a week. Food getting scarce; store looted during night. Our horses stolen. General Sanjines refuses protection from robbery and thefts. Rainy season upon us. Crops in fields be lost if teams go. No way of transporting families to places of safety."

According to recent reports the amount of waterpower which is in the way of preparation in Norway is 500,000 horsepower in addition to the existing 430,000 horsepower. Many large projects for the hydraulic work upon the large streams have been the subject of franchise granted during the last few years, and such work is now about finished. The hydraulic work on the Mjosen is completed and another enterprise on the Sammanger stream is soon to give the city of Bergen a large amount of electric current.

RAT CATCHERS BUSY

Boston River Front Being Depopulated Of the Rodents

Boston, July 10.—Rat catchers are busy today all along the Boston waterfront. Under the direction of the Board of Health they will endeavor to eliminate all possible sources of the bubonic plague. As the fleas on the rats are regarded as the disease germ carriers the rodents will be combed for the fleas and these examined by specialists.

Longshoremen are killing the rats in large numbers. As fast as vessels arrive from the ports wher the plague exists they are fumigated to exterminate the rats and subjected to close inspection.

MAY EFFECT PEACE

Prospect That Italy and Turkey Will Settle Difficulties

Constantinople July 10.—It is stated on reliable authority that there is a prospect of conclusion of peace with Italy. The departure of the president of the Council of State, Said Harem, for Vienna last Saturday, is supposed to have some connection with peace negotiations.

London, July 10.—There is no direct confirmation of the possible peace settlement between Italy and Turkey, but the idea prevails in Berlin and other continental capitals that Mahmoud Shefket Pasha's resignation is perhaps a prelude to this.

RAID IN BRISTOL

Minister and Y. M. C. A. Secretary Issue Complaints

Bristol, Va., July 10.—Upon warrants issued on complaints of Rev. J. A. Baylor, of State Street Methodist church, and Secretary Lundy, of the Bristol Y. M. C. A., the police raided certain places late tonight, bringing to the police station nine women. The cash bond for the appearance of these women, which was made tonight aggregated $7,000. A sensational feature of the raid was the appearance on the streets of a prominent minister in disguise.

Fashions in typography change like all things mortal, but the typographical fashions of 1865, as illustrated in The American Printer by a fac-simile of the invitation card for the first typothetae dinner, might well have been changed before they were adopted. The work of type founders and printers has certainly improved greatly in taste since the times when those cruelly ornamental designs were popular.

JACKSON WINS BIGGEST RACE

Englishman Defeats Americans in 1,500 Metre Event—Yankees Score 13 Points, But Are Greatly Disappointed.

Stockholm, July 10.—The finals in six events were completed at the Olympic today and of the 36 points the United States scored 13, England 6; Germany 6; Canada 3; Australia 3; Finland 3; and France 2.

The United States and Germany had the honor of making a clean sweep in the weight putting and 200 meters swimming back stroke respectively. England won the greatest race of the Olympic so far—the 1,500 meters run, in which the Oxonian, Jackson, broke the record by more than six seconds. Finland won the 5,000 meters in a splendid struggle against France, while the Canadian, Hodgson, brought glory to the Dominion by his victory in the 1,500 meters swimming contest, in which he hung up three records.

Perhaps never before have there been two such contests as the 5,000 meter and 1,500 meter runs on the same day. In the latter it was a gruelling contest from start to finish. Abel R. Kiviat and Norman S. Taber, the American representatives, came into the stretch together. Jackson all the way around the last lap went at a terrific pace, passing four men in order to get up with the leaders. With Kiviat slightly in advance, 10 yards from the tape, Jackson fairly leaped ahead and fell exhausted into the arms of his friends. So close was the race for second place between Kiviat and Taber, the judges reserved their decision until a photograph of the finish was developed before announcing the second and third men.

The 5,000 meters contest was practically a two man race between the Finn, Kolehmainen, and the Frenchman, Bouin. They finished 160 yards ahead of Hutson, of England, who beat out George V. Bonhag, Irish-American Athletic Club, by a foot for third. Kolehmainen won first by a bare yard.

There is no denying that the American family party lodging aboard the good ship Finland are disappointed tonight. The optimistc expectatons of the Americans suffered two hard reverses. This Olympic is proving that Great Britain and the United States must waive their traditonal monopoly of field sports, since other nationalities have set themselves seriously to demonstrate that they are possessed of as much muscle and endurance as the pioneers in field athletics, and that the only difference is that they came into the game later.

The two calamities under consideration so far as the Amercans are concerned, befell in the matter of distance running, and seemed to demonstrate what British sportsmen have always contended, that however unconquerable Amercans may be in performances requiring quickness, they are apt to meet their superiors when it comes to the test of endurance.

"With such men as Kiviat, Jones, Sheppard and Taber in the 1,500 meter event Americans had every reason to be hopeful, but the Oxford representative, Jackson, who comes of a famous athletic family, although he does not look the part, proved to have the necessary stoutness of heart and speed to carry him past a flying field and win the race for England."

His achievement will be well remembered as long as foot racing is talked about. The meeting shows that the veteran must be reconciled to the younger men taking their places. Sheppard, who at London was king of the track, found that the youths were his betters in the 1,500. Ralph Rose, a former Olympic winner and record holder, had to give second place to O. J. McDonald at putting the shot (best hand) in which the winner established a new record of approximately 50 feet, four inches. At that Rose also beat the old record with a put of a fraction over 50 feet.

Everything considered, the United States had a successful day. Three American flags went up again for the shot put. Eight of the 11 who qualified for the final test for the pole vault are Americans and the two rounds of trials in the 200 meters sprint gave the United States four of the six men in the final competition.

In the evening the Hawaiian, Kahanamoku easily out-swam the world. Incidentaly Lieut. Patton, the only American officer of the 42 contestants in the modern pentathalon, outpointed the champion French army officer at fencing and the Frenchman is reputed to be the best in the world at this diversion. Patton probably will be among the first half dozen when the final score is made up.

The final heat of the 100 meters swimming was won by the Hawaiian, "Duke" Kahanamoku; Healy, of Australia, was second and Kenneth Huszagh, Chicago A. A., third; time one minute 3 2-5 seconds. This is one second slower than the world's record established by Kahanamoku. Brettin, Germany; Longworth, Australia, and Ramme, Germany, also competed. Georgia Hodgson, the star Canadian swimmer, captured the final of the 1,500 meters swimming, free style; J. Q. Hatfield, of England, was second, and Hardwick, of Australia, third. In winning this event Hodgson broke three records. He covered 1,000 meters in 14 minutes, 37 seconds, and the 1,500 meters in 2 minutes flat. This beat's Taylor's Olympic record made in London in 1908 by two minutes and 33 seconds.

Hodgson continued, completing the mile in 23 minutes 34 1-2 seconds.

The Germans, Bathe, Luetzow and Malisch, were first, second and third in the final of the 200 meters swim, breast stroke. Bathe covered the course in three minutes 1 4-5 seconds.

The only American officer in the modern pentathaoln is Lieut. George F. Patton, Jr. He defeated the champion of the French army, Lieut. Mas De La Tree, at fencing today. The Frenchman, who is one of the best fencers in the world, won the first and second points. Lieut. Patton won the next three, the last being closely contested.

Forty-two officers started in the competition, and 27 remain tonight, the others being eliminated. There are 12 Swedes and three British officers among those left. The fencing lasted two days. Lieut. Patton met 29 men and defeated 23 of them. He scored sixth in the swimming event against 29 competitors and 20th in the shooting against 42 competitors.

FRENCH AVIATOR KILLED.

Rene Bedel Meets Death in Presence of Thousands of Soldiers.

Chalons-Sur-Marne, France, July 9.—Rene Bedel, one of the most experienced airmen and the holder of the Pommerey cup for cross country flying, which he won from Jules Vedrines, met his death this morning before the eyes of some thousands of French troops who were assembled on the reviewing ground at Mourmelon-le-Grand, near here.

Bedel, who had come in his monoplane from Villacoublay, near Paris, to participate in the maneuvers, arrived above the camp after a fine flight. He was about to descend when his monoplane struck the telegraph wires which the prevailing haze evidently prevented him from seeing.

His machine capsized and Bedel was thrown to the ground. The motor of his aeroplane fell on his body, and he was crushed almost beyond recognition.

BLOCKS A CAMPAIGN MOVE

House Member Objects to Printing Woodrow Wilson's Old Tariff Views

Washington, July 9.—Democratic opposition blocked the printing of the old-time tariff views of Gov. Woodrow Wilson yesterday, when Representative Hill, of Connecticut, Republican, sought to have the expressed opinions of the Democratic candidate for President published at the expense of the House.

Mr. Hill explained that Mr. Wilson's views were expressed in Atlanta in 1882, when a tariff board was holding hearings throughout the country to collect data on which to frame a tariff measure.

Representative Roddenbery, of Georgia, Democrat, opposed having political campaign documents published and distributed at public expense. The objection ended the move.

PRINCESS CHARGES DESERTION.

Defendant to Nullification Suit Thought to be in America.

London, July 9.—Judge Sir Henry Hargrave Deane in the divorce court today gave leave to serve Prince Chas. de Bourbon, who is understood to be in the United States, which substituted service in a suit brought by Princess Jeanne de Bourbon for a decree of nullity of marriage.

According to a brief statement made by the princess' counsel, the couple were secretly married in London in January, 1910. In the following September the prince is alleged to have deserted Princess Jeanne in Paris. He disappeared and Princess Jeanne is suing on the ground that the marriage ceremony was void.

LITTLE HEADWAY.

Commerce Commission Going Slow on Atlanta Cases.

Duluth, Minn., July 10.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission has made little headway in the continuation of the hearing of an action brought by the Atlanta freight bureau to correct alleged railroad discrimination against that city.

In the two hours of hearing there were two intervening witnesses heard from Nashville, Tenn., one a publisher and another a hardware merchant.

The Eastern railroads probably will be heard this afternoon with Baltimore and Atlanta presenting their cases later in the week. The hearing probably will take until the end of the week.

MUST PAY FINE OF $20,000.

Steamship Company Charged With Rebating.

Macon, Ga., July 10.—Judge Emory Speer, of the United States Court, Southern District of Georgia, today made the mandate of the Circuit Court of Appeals the decision in his court, and as a result the Merchants & Miners' Transportation Company of Savannah must pay a fine of $20,000, with interest from March 25, 1911.

The steamship company was charged with rebating, and the fine of $20,000 was imposed. The case was taken to the Supreme Court of the United States, but there a hearing was denied.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 10.—The body found today in Grassy Bay, near the scene of the accident to the dirigible Akron, was tonight identified as that of Walter Gest, who was a passenger on the ill-fated baloon. He was horribly mutilated and identification was only made possible by tattoo marks upon the arms.

..Theatrical..

The Grand Theatre yesterday proved the delightful mecca of hundreds of people who found the extremely humid atmosphere on the street just a little more than they could stand. In the delightfully ventilated house with its score of electric fans and other ceeling devices, they spent an hour most pleasantly and were charmed with the music and the pictures.

Today the feature film will be "The Cowboy's Adopted Child", wherein is told a story of the West that is truly exciting and interesting. In the heart of the rugged plainsman there often beats a heart as tender as that of a child and this great picture for today portrays this characteristic of the Westerner in a truly picturesque and inspiring maner. While this will be the feature, it is by no means the only picture and two others equally as good and equally as interesting will be portrayed in the always efficient manner peculiar to the Grand.

At The New Bijou

Yesterday was one of the banner days in the history of the new Bijou, and the fact that the attractive theatre was crowded on such a hot day truly attested the great popularity of the place. And those at the Bijou found solid comfort and a big programme of entertainment. The cool air of the Bijou was a matter of much favorable comment and it can truthfully be declared that when it comes to banishing the heat the Bijou is peculiarly and particularly "it." The hottest kind of weather is defied and successfully so. However, the Bijou is a comfortable place no matter the temperature, high or low, and it is just the coziest spot on rainy days.

The programme arranged for today will furnish a rare treat in every line. Thee will be three reels of the very ltest films and some of the most popular moving picture artists will be seen in clever action upon the large screen. There will be a fine mixture of both stirring dramatic and boisterously funny photoplays, and there will be an atmosphere of novelty about today's bill that will be especially attractive. The music for today will be sprightly and the latest from dear old Broadway. So any one who misses today's Bijou bill will go shy on a powerful good thing, while also missing a most comfortable spot to while away an hour in, and all, too, for the tiny price of admission of 5 cents.

ATLANTIC CITY BOSS WINS.

Three of Kuehle's Candidates Elected to Board of Commissioners.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 9.—Mayor Harry Bacharach and his running mate, James B. Thompson, a hotel man and reformer, were high in the poll for the election of the five commissioners held here today, but three candidates on the ticket supported by Louis Kuehle, former political leader, were also successful, and will control the commission. The official returns show Thompson 4,581; Bacharach 4,195; Beyer, 4,034; Bartlett, 3,916, and Riddle, 3,907.

The result was in doubt until the last precincts had been heard from. More than a score of arrests for fraud including supporters of both sides, were made during the day. Kuehle who was formerly political boss of this city, was indicted for malfeasance in office, convicted, and sentenced to jail, but is at liberty, pending an appeal. He made the fight of his life at today's election.

BOLD ROBBER.

Held Up Thirty Men in Saloon, But Was Arrested.

Chicago, July 10.—George Rogers, said by the police to be a former convict, compelled 30 men in a South State street saloon yesterday afternoon to throw up their hands and at the point of a pistol, pass one by one before him and turn over money and jewelry, but before he could leave the saloon he was arrested.

One man who slipped out of a rear door when the holdup began, called Policeman J. H. Loeck, who after Rogers had fired twice at him, knocked Rogers down with a club, took the pistol from him and placed him under arrest. A handful of money and jewelry belonging to Rogers' intended victims was recovered.

The disease has come down through all the ages and is to-day, as it has ever been, a scourge and blight upon humanity. The symptoms of Contagious Blood Poison are the same as in its earliest history, but its cure has now become an accomplished fact, whereas, it was once considered an incurable infection. S. S. S. is an antidote for the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, and cures it in all its forms and stages. S. S. S. possessing both purifying and tonic properties routs out all the poison, and at the same time builds up the general health. A person who has been cured of Contagious Blood Poison by the use of S. S. S. need not fear a return of its symptoms at any future time. This great medicine checks the progress of the poison and gradually but surely all sores and eruptions heal, ulcerated mouth and throat pass away, the hair stops falling out, copper-colored splotches fade away, and when the blood is thoroughly purified no sign of the disease is left. STATE COMMITTEE FINISHED

Long Wrangle Over Senatorial Question—Small Leaf Tobacco Sales —The Republican Situation —Other Raleigh News

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 10.—It was nearly 3 o'clock this morning when the State Democratic Executive Committee finished the labors of its special session called for the election of a State chairman and to settle the matter of rules for the holding of the primaries for United States Senator.

The last hour was devoted to hearing the contest from Pamlico county over the county chairmanship. S. W. Ferabee had been chairman for a long while and at the last annual meeting the committee was tied down seven and seven between Ferabee and G. S. Wescott for the place. Ferabee was presiding and he cast the deciding vote for himself, according to charges of Wescott's supporters. The State Committee voted to seat Wescott as chairman.

It was a long and rather strenuous contest that the committee had over the rules for the Senatorial primary without any result except that of postponing action on especially mooted question until some time in October. This is the construction of the term "Democratic ticket" as used by the recent State conventions in prescribing who shall be entitled to vote in the primaries, electors who vote the "Democratic ticket" being specified as having the right to vote for Senator. Friends of Kitchin and Clark are lined up in support of a resolution to declare that the term "Democratic ticket" means electors who vote the Democratic National, State and county ticket. The leaders of this construction and insistence for specification were E. L. Travis, Judge J. Crawford Biggs, S. M. Gattis. On the other hand there were leaders like A. D. Watts, R. N. Hackett, R. H. Mayes and Francis D. Winston who insisted that while this was strictly true that iron-clad rule could not be applied. Electors might scratch tickets to some extent and still be voting the Democratic ticket "in the main," and should not be deprived of voice in Senatorial preference. The judges of the election should, they insist, have the settling of this question as one to which a strict rule could not apply. Nearly four hours were spent in this debate and it is not at all certain that the committee will ever take up the question again, the inclination of the majority seeming to be to leave the matter where the State convention put it and let the election authorities settle the issues as raised with, possibly a ruling from the State chairman on the question to guide them. Chairman Webb declared during the debate last night that he would rule that "Democratic ticket" as used by the convention means the voting of the Democratic ticket "in the main," this allowing a reasonable degree of latitude in scratching and changing to suit personal preferences.

Hon. Chas. A. Webb, the newly elected Democratic State chairman, says he wil open State headquarters in the Yarborough Hotel here about August 10th. He spent today here following his election to the chairmanship last night casting about with a view to opening State headquarters later.

A charter was issued today for the Farmers' & Mechanics' Bank of Henderson, capital $25,000 authorized and $16,000 subscribed by W. B. Daniels, R. J. Gill, J. C. Kittrell and others for a general banking business.

The smallest leaf tobacco sales reported for any month during the several years that all warehouse sales have been required to be reported to the State Department of Agriculture, are reported for the month of June. Only two warehouses in the whole State report sales. These are Reidsville and Henderson, and only the Reidsville warehouse reports sales first hand for the growers, other sales being re-sales for warehouses. Reidsville sold 4,190 pounds for growers and 2,652 pounds for warehouse and dealers. Henderson sold 4,928 pounds, all for the warehouse.

According to views expressed by prominent Republicans here the Republican situation in this State has developed remarkably since the National convention so that some are beginning to wonder whether there will really be any Republican ticket in this State for the November election. The Roosevelt forces have agreed upon an athempt to take charge of the Republican machinery in the State and it is said that State Chairman Morshead, a Taft supporter, is really afraid to issue the call for the second State convention for the nomination of the ticket and adoption of the platform for fear the Roosevelt crowd will take forcible charge of the convention, name Roosevelt electors and a Roosevelt ticket generally. The indications now are that there will be no Republican State convention until well into September or October and then there will be a determined fight between Roosevelt and Taft forces to take control. Those supporting Roosevelt are hesitating about swinging off completely from the Republican organization lest it queer them for all time in party influence and patronage.

DRUG COMPANY RESTRAINED

Filling Whiskey Prescriptions Charged—A Study In Names—Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., July 10.—A restraining order has been issued against the McPherson Drug Co., Lillington, N. C., citing them to appear before Judge Daniels, in chambers, at Goldsboro today, to show cause why they should not discontinue the sale of whiskey on prescription. This is the only drug store in the county selling whiskey on prescription.

A few days ago at Hood & Grantham's Mr. Louis McIlley Kinnie Tew, of Sampson, brother of Mr. Martin D. Wiley C. Louis H. Rasbert Tew and Miss Rosannah Loretta Aniker Tew, wanted a prescription filled for his cousin, Miss Emily J. Florentine Nancy Catherine Winifred Elizabeth Valentine Vann Hobson, and asked to have the prescription charged to Miss Lucy Delithy Lucindy May Saprona Ann Englandtine Hobson, or to her sister, Miss Susan Jane Mary Palestine Hobson.

Colonel George Peterson, of Clinton, was in town last night shaking hands with his friends. He has been endorsed by Sampson as one of the next State Senators from Harnett, Sampson, Johnston and Lee, and is claiming that Sampson is entitled to the candidate this time as Harnett had the honor last time, and Lee having been lately added is not claiming the candidate.

Mr. N. C. Hines, the clever and accommodating agent of the D. & S. Ry., has resigned to accept the position of soliciting agent for the same road. He will be succeeded by Mr. E. J. Hudson, who has been his assistant.

Mrs. J. S. Stewart and her sisters, Mises Annie and Mamie Steel, of Rockingham, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Mattox.

Prof. B. P. Gentry left last week for Columbia University to take some special work. He was joined at Norfolk by Misses Lena Legget, Pauline Hassell and Lela Austin who will also take the Summer course preparatory to teaching in the graded school here next session.

SITUATION THREATENING.

Strikers Preparing to Make More Trouble at Grabor, la.

Deridder, La., July 10.—After the departure of the militia last night from the Galloway Lumber Mill at Grabor, three miles from here, every strike breaker, fearing attack by the union men, left the lumber camp, taking his family and household goods with him. Eight deputy sheriffs, plentifully supplied with arms and ammunition, now are guarding the mill. Union men held a secret meeting here last night. Unverified reports are being circulated that they intend to make trouble. The situation today, though quiet, is considered threatening. Three killed, seven dangerously hurt and 41 wounded, according to the official report of Sheriff Reid, make up the list of casualties in the riot last Sunday at the Grabow plant of the Galloway Lumber Company.

No more arrests have been made in addition to the 10 that occurred Monday, but Sheriff Reid predicted today that thers would be ordered after the investigation of the grand jury next week.

Galveston, Texas, July 10.—A campaign to exterminate rats, regarded as one of the chief factors in the spread of Bubonic plague, has been begun here. Three cents a head is being offered for rodents. They are being brought in today by the score. The campaign was decided on after a conference of government, State and city authorities. Regulations governing the arrival of all ships are being rigidly enforced.

MOUNTAIN TRAVELS.

Sage of Pender is Still Basking in the Mountains—Scenery.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., en Route, Weaverville, July 9.—Accompanied by a charming lady friend we take the cars for this mountain village, the seat of a fine Methodist school. The numerous elegant homes in suburban Asheville attest wealth, culture and refinement. The city spreads out over a large area. But we are reaching the woods. The air is delightfully bracing; the apple trees are bending beneath the extra crop of fruit that are now hard and green, but will later develop into the "Winesap" "Grimes' Golden," "Mangum Bonum" and many other fine varieties of fruit. The temperature at sunrise was 60; Winter coats felt decidedly comfortable and eiderdown quilt felt real comfortable to sleep under this morning. For real down solid comfort these mountain trolley cars leave the Wrightsville trolley deeply in the shade. We are now at Mountain View at an elevation of about 3,000 feet, and still climbing. These mountain farms are worked on the intensive plan. Oat crops are followed by corn. We see fields of that crop about four inches high. The blackberry crop seems to be enormous. By and by these will be more jam put up for Winter use and some fine blackberry wine to flavor the sinkers of Buncombe. Wheat in the shock, fields of red clover, with daisies, deep chasms in rock cut by man for the trolley track. Here we see the first pines growing near the mountain top. This is the home of the wild nasturtiums. At the summit there is an oasis whose menu is varied and we sip and sip frozen sherbets which we view near the comb of the mountains. The distance that lends enchantment to the viey. And robes the mountains in its azure hue.

Time is up, we return down grade. This delicious air causes the old to feel younger and causes the health giving oxygen to course through the veins of the younger to develop peachy cheeks and cherry lips.

The Summer has been so cool not many visitors have arrived, far less than usual for the time. Consequently there are many boarding houses not doing the usual rushing business. We are stopping at "Wrenwood" with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Meares, 61 South Broad avenue. It is a delightful home-like place, on car line from depot.

We find quite a few Eastern North Carolina men who live here and have made good. Among them may be mentioned Judge J. D. Murphy, of Pender; Mr. Grimes, of the Paragon Drug Co.; Dr. John Carroll, Mr. A. L. Price, formerly with the C. W. Polvogt Co.; Mr. L. B. Rogers, formerly with the D. L. Gore Co., who runs an immense wholesale grocery establishment right at the depot, and others. Tomorrow we expect to visit Hendersonville and vicinity and the lofty mountains near by, "Eagle's Nest" from which six States can be seen. E. D. P.

NO NEW EVIDENCE

Claude Allen and His Father Testify In Former's Case

Wytheville, Va., July 10.—The prisoner and his father, old man Floyd Allen, both testified today in the trial of Claude Allen, alleged slayer of Sheriff Webb in the Hillsville Court House tragedy. The testimony of the defendant was practically the same as that given in his former trial when he was convicted of killing Judge Massie and given 15 years. He denied being a party to any conspiracy and claimed he shot only in defense of his father.

Floyd Allen denied threats against the life of Commonwealth Attorney Foster, which formerly he had testified he had heard him make.

In an attempt to weaken the allegation of a conspiracy, the defense introduced direct and corroborative evidence that Cabell Strickler approached Floyd Allen while the latter was waiting for the verdict in the case that precipitated the shooting, felt the old man's pulse and jokingly asked if it had stopped beating. In Claude Allen's former trial, it was testified that the son himself felt his father's pulse.

The prisoner's fiancee was in the court room all the afternoon.

NEW COUNTY IN N. C.

Propose to Slice Caldwell and Burke and Form Granite County.

Granite Falls, N. C., July 8—A movement is on foot to form the new county of Granite by taking a part of Caldwell and Burke counties. The county seat would be Granite Falls, which will be the center of the new county.

It is understood that a large number of people in the boundary that the new county would take in are in favor of it as no part of the county would be over ten miles from Granite Falls, the county seat, while it is 20 miles to Lenoir and Morganton, the present county seats. Both political parties have agreed not to support any candidate for representative that was not in favor of forming the new county.

BOTH LEGS AMPUTATED.

Harvey Fowlkes Crushed Under Southern Train Near Garner.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 10.—At Rex Hospital this evening both legs of Harvey Fowlkes were amputated on account of being terribly crushed under the wheels of a work train on the Southern Railway near Garner early in the afternoon. Fowlkes is a young white man and was with a squad doing some ditching along the main line of the railroad when he stumbled under the train.

FOR THE THIN AND SCRAWNY.

Samose Will Make You Plump and Rosy Says J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co.

If you are getting thin you are sick, although you may not know it. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that needs looking after. If you have always been thin it doesn't follow that you are sick, but you may not be healthy. You cannot be strong if you are thin.

Try then to be healthy and plump, it is not difficult if you know how.

The only way to increase the weight and gain health and flesh is by using Samose, the standard flesh forming food, and tissue builder. It mingles with the food you eat and is assimilated so that all the flesh forming and tissue building elements of the food are retained in the system. This explains the great value of Samose.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. sells every package on a genuine guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

The Democratic platform and its candidates stand for only what is right, but a lot of New York financiers are against it. This shows that some business does not care to take chances with a square deal.

Teddy is trying to work the working man. The working man is tired being worked every time a camapign starts. Carry out some of the promises made to him every two to four years when he is needed most by politicians.

The Charleston Post warns the people of Charleston that the old Spanish swindle game has started up again. Haven't Charleston people quit laboring under the hallucination that they can get rich quick by picking up money scattered by the fairies?

If one-half the money invested in real estate booms were invested in manufacturing, Wilmington would grow twice as fast as it does. Let us have a factory boom to go along with our real estate boom. Both are necessary in every city that wants to have life in it.

For recreation the seashore offers more of it and a greater variety of enjoyment and pleasure than all other kinds of resorts. For knitting up the raveled sleeve of care and for producing sleep for the weary, there is nothing like salt air and refreshing breezes wafted in from the pure atmosphere of the wide ocean.

One marvelous thing about Wilmington is that all business and manufacturing enterprises meet with 100 per cent. of success. The percentage of failures is so small that a little failure every two or three years would create a sensation. To start something in Wilmington assures its success because it is a good town.

SOUTHERN REPUBLICANS WOBBLE

Southern Republicans in the abstract are conjured with Roosevelt but in the concrete they are minions of the Republican party. To win with Roosevelt was their hope but to lose with him is none of their intention. It will turn out that they favored Roosevelt for the Republican nomination but they do not favor him as the nominee of a third party.

The Star has already referred to the conference of North Carolina progressive Republicans at Greensboro last Monday. They decided that Roosevelt still looked good to them but determined to be regular Republicans. They decided to keep up the Republican organization in the State, and took a recess to consider plans for commiting the party organization to Roosevelt for President. They not only decided to maintain "regularity," but will hold primaries to pass upon the regularity of the Chicago convention. They may decide that the Chicago convention was a farce and a fraud, and read it out of the party, and then where would Taft be?

Meanwhile, the man whom they want for President has quit the Republican party and is organizing a third party. They cannot remain Republicans, if, as a body, they support the third party nominee. That would destroy their own regularity and nullify their Republican charter. Of course, North Carolina Republicans are not going to do that. They know there is something in the Republican party for them, but nothing for them in going down to defeat with a third party nominee.

Take it as we hand it to you. There will not be many third partyites among North Carolina Republicans when the scratch comes to leave the party and follow Roosevelt. If they have to leave the party to get Roosevelt, they are not going to do it. With them the Republican party is first, and Roosevelt last but not least. It is pretty much the same way with Texas Republicans, and doubtless all Southern Republicans will be almost a unit for regularity. Republicanism is a fetish with them.

Like the North Carolina Republicans, the Texas brethren have deferred affiliation with the third party, and "will take no other decisive action until after the National convention of progressives is held in Chicago in August." They want to see what it will amount to, and if it is no great shakes, believe us, there will be no Southern Republican affiliation with it. So far as North Carolina Republicans are concerned, they hate Taft and love Roosevelt, or think they do, but they love the party of privilege and pie better even than they do Theodore Roosevelt, of the third party. This is just about the truth.

The Roosevelt Republicans are in charge of the party organization in a number of the States. While they are already on top they do not care to quit and organize another party. California, North Carolina, Texas and other States want to hold on to the G. O. P. organization and nominate Roosevelt electors instead of Taft electors. However, they cannot do that, for the reason that the Roosevelt motto of the party is "Thou shalt not steal." That bars them from stealing Republican State organizations for Roosevelt.

How is it possible for them to think of stealing Taft electors for the virtuous and high-minded Teddy? They simply couldn't do it and be consistent Rooseveltistas, nor could they do it and maintain their "regularity" as Republicans. The National Republican organization in the hands of Taft would not recognize them as regular and they would be immediately confronted in every State with a new Republican organization and electors recognized by the National organization.

Steal nothing! Their new principles inhibit theft. Just as the New York World remarked a few days ago: "Governor Johnson, of California, is horrified at the 'theft' of the convention at Chicago, but rejoices at the prospect of stealing the Republican electors of California." Just so. How inconsistent!

If Republicans want Roosevelt they will have to join the third party. If they want "regularity" they will have to take Taft. However, if Roosevelt electors are nominated by Republicans in any State, Democrats had better watch their corks. If they should be elected, they would finally vote for Taft in the Electoral College in preference to Wilson. The Democrat who would vote for Roosevelt electors would be casting a vote for Taft as the logical outcome of the final contest when the electors meet to choose a President.

TEDDY FAVORS BIG STEAL.

"Thou shalt not steal," was heralded by Roosevelt as the motto of the Progressive party, with with him it applies to the other fellow only. The other fellow shall not steal from him, but as for him and his they can steal all they want from Taft's "coyotes" and Wilson's cohorts.

Roosevelt, whose idea of political and civic virtue is so great on paper, is actually laying a plot at Oyster Bay to waylay and sandbag both the Republican and Democratic organizations. According to an Associated Press dispatch from Oyster Bay he favors highway robbery of the two old parties. The dispatch says plans were outlined on Tuesday "whereby Col. Roosevelt hopes to capture local or State tickets from both the Democratic and Republican parties in furtherance of his purpose to put the new third party on its feet." The dispatch goes on to say that "it is proposed to execute the move within the party organizations where Roosevelt sentiment is strong enough to make such an attempt feasible." Did you ever! Isn't that deliberate? Talk about your Camorrists, will you!

What do you think of that? The great and virtuous Roosevelt planning and plotting theft of the machinery of the two old parties so it can be made to grind for him? Teddy himself tells how it is to be done. "In certain districts," said Col. Roosevelt to the Associated Press, "the Republican nominations will be captured for Progressives who will support our candidates for electors. In other districts this will be done through the Democratic organizations."

The Colonel is really disingenuious. He is no dissembler, but is a bold plotter, telling about it open and above board. The amusing thing about it is that a man who thinks he is big enough to be President should fool himself into believing that he could successfully achieve such a coup if it were even carefully planned. However, it is planned all right, for the Associated Press, which gets it from the Colonel, goes on to explain it as follows:

"As the first step in the plan, there is under preparation what will be perhaps the most elaborate political chart a country ever made. When completed, Col. Roosevelt's organizers will have data from every Congressional district in the country regarding the strength of the Roosevelt following, conditions in both the Democratic and Republican State and District organizations, tabulations showing the vote in past National elections, and lists of the best available timber for the new party among political workers and leading men in business and the professions. This will be Col. Roosevelt's war map. It will show him at a glance where the best field lies in each State and district for the success of Roosevelt electoral candidates. In some cases it is hoped to arrange for fusion of the independent and Republican or Democratic tickets, provided the candidates on the local tickets will support the Roosevelt electors in exchange for having the Roosevelt strength thrown to them."

Who's loony now? It should be remarked in conclusion that the plan as concocted at Oyster Bay shows that the Rough Rider approves the action proposed by North Carolina Republicans concerning the capture of the State organization for Roosevelt electors. Such a capture would mean the nomination of Roosevelt electors, and not Taft elector in accordance with the nomination made by the Chicago convention. Of rourse, any organization doing such a thing as that, whether it would be Democratic or Republican, would disqualify itself for regularity. It would be assuming an independent and revolutionary role.

As a campaign feature, the planning and plotting at Oyster Bay will furnish fine humor for a more or less serious National contest.

THE STATE DEMOCRACY

The campaign is now getting to the point where the North Carolina Democracy is in action. At Raleigh on Tuesday the State Executive Committee elected the Hon. Chas. A. Webb, of Asheville, as State chairman, and Walter E. Brock, of Anson, as secretary. The committee's action in this connection was unanimous, and doubtless it will give satisfaction to Democrats all over the State.

State Chairman Webb is a lawyer of fine ability and has ably served the party in the General Assembly. He is known all over the State, and we are sure the interests of the party will be in the hands of as loyal a Democrat as there is in the State. Mr. Webb is a man of alertness and keenness, and he will put up a winning fight for the militant Democracy of the Tar Heel State. Aside from his splendid capabilities, Mr. Webb's selection was appropriate in view of the fact that his home city is that of the Hon. Locke Craig, the party's nominee for Governor. It need not be vouchsafed that he will carry North Carolina with a whoop for President Wilson and Governor Craig.

Former State Chairman A. H. Eller, of Winston-Salem, retired because he could not serve longer. He has been State chairman during several campaigns, and the party owes him a vote of thanks for his service and zealous work in behalf of the Democratic party and its principles and candidates. He made a wide-awake and judicious chairman and it was largely through his splendid work that signal triumph perched upon the banners of the Democracy in two notable campaigns.

It is gratifying to note that there is no friction in the committee which is to have charge of this campaign. A temporary stir was made over the proposed rules to govern the Senatorial primary to be held November 5th, but we cannot very well see how any set of rules can affect the candidacy of one candidate without doing the same for all three, Senator Simmons, Governor Kitchin and Judge Clark. At the same time, the committee did well to defer final action upon the rules till all the candidates are consulted. Thus the committee shows that it wants to be fair and impartial, just as it should be. The rules ought to be satisfactory to all the candidates, and if they are fair that is all any of them should ask or expect.

CURRENT COMMENT.

All the Wall Street papers are loyal to Taft. With the lights before them it should be easy for the people to see their duty.—Greensboro News (Ind.)

B. L. Abney, of Charleston, was a room-mate of Woodrow Wilson at the University of Virginia; which institute they both attended. It has been said that if Woodrow Wilson is elected President B. L. Abney may be the attorney general of the United States.—Anderson Intelligencer.

We were criticised by some people because we opposed the establishment of a recorder's court in this county last year. The Bar Association at Morehead City has taken action which if carried out, will make the Recorder's courts a part of history.—Newbern Sun.

The internal revenue officers should get on the water wagon. Just lately two in North Carolina were poisoned when they quenched their thirst by drinking a lot of beer captured at a blockade still in Sampson county. The effects were such that the stuff had evidently been doctored for the revenue men.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Lumber river is a dangerous stream and it seems to be rightly called "Drowning Creek". It has claimed many victims and some of the most prominent citizens of the county are among those who narrowly escaped going out by that route when they were boys. The drowning of two boys here last week ought to serve as a warning to other boys to be careful how they trifle with the treacherous currents in the dark waters of the Lumbee.—Lumberton Robesonian.

When the contending political parties gather for the battle at the polls next November, one-third of the ballots will be cast in the cities of 25,000 inhabitants or over, according to a bulletin showing the number of men of voting age in the United States. The figures show that in 1910 the cities had 9,004,422 men of voting age. For continental United States, as a whole, men of voting age numbered 26,999,151, and constituted 29.4 per cent. of the entire population, which was 91,872,266 in 1910.—Baltimore Sun.

Plans are being perfected for the organization in Florida of the new Roosevelt party. The promoters assert that they will enroll among the membership fully 80 per cent. of the Republicans of the State who are not officeholders, and they are counting strong on drawing some following from the Democratic ranks. Evidently there will be a lot more interest in the November election this year than is usual in this State, where victory in the Democratic primary is practically an election.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

AGAINST NEGRO POLICEMEN.

Hoke Smith Becomes Angry and Wants White Men for Places.

Washington, July 10.—Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, today opened warfare upon the employment of negro policemen by the District government. His anger was aroused over the arrest by a negro at the Capitol yesterday of a constituent of the Georgia Senator, young Grover Kelly, of Macon.

The young Georgian, when he noticed the black policeman, gave vent to some caustic remark to the effect that negro policemen would not be tolerated in the South. The negro became infuriated, arrested the Georgian, and is said to have hit him with his mace. The boy was released on cash bond. Senator Smith and Representatives Hughes and Bartlett, of Georgia, appeared as counsel for him at Police Court this morning, only to find the case had been docketed and collateral bond returned.

The Senator then announced that he was opposed to the continuance of negro policemen in the District. "Fill their places with good white men," he said.

TO IGNORE TAFT AND T. R.

Iowans Looking Only to Success of Their State Ticket.

Des Moines, Ia., July 10.—That neither President Taft nor Col. Roosevelt will be indorsed by the Republican State Convention, which meets here tomorrow to adopt a party platform, was the statement made by prominent leaders of both factions today following conferences which lasted throughout the night and continued today.

Although the convention will be controlled by Progressive Republicans, no effort will be made to pass Roosevelt resolutions, according to Progressive leaders, unless Taft supporters attempt to indorse the President. All plans thus far outlined are looking only to the success of the Republican State and legislative tickets.

Governor Carroll, Stand-pat, has delivered an ultimatum to the Progressives who will be in control of the convention that they must either endorse Taft or face a fight.

The Progressives, at a conference participated in by George W. Clarke, nominee for Governor, and many prominent State officials, decided to write a Progressive platform, endorse State candidates, but not mention the name of the President.

Representative Jno. M. Faison of Third District Introduces Bill

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., July 10.—In the House of Representatives on Monday, Mr. Faison, of North Carolina, introduced the following bill, which was referred to the Committee on Inter-State and Foreign Commerce and ordered to be printed:

A Bill for the Study and Prevention of Pellagra.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the study and prevention of the disease pellagra, for the purpose of preventing further extension of this rapidly-increasing and fatal disease, by a commission of three medical experts under the direction of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service.

If it were necessary to to pay more for

than for other kinds

—there might be a reason why some motorists would accept other kinds in order to save first cost. But it is an entirely different proposition when a motorist can get the kind of service G & J Tires are known to give at the price of other brands.

We beg to state that the three G & J tires now on the Hupmobile owned by my brother, J. A. Davis, and myself, are the original tire equipment. Our car was delivered on October 13th, 1909, and since that time has been driven something over 22,000 miles, at all times using these tires.

About three weeks ago, owing to a severe cut, we had to replace one of the original tires, but up to that time, it had done fully 21,000 miles.

Yours very truly,

CITY'S LEGAL DEPARTMENT

Annual Report of City Attorney Herbert McClammy Submitted to Council Yesterday Morning. Interesting Resume.

The following annual report was presented at Council meeting yesterday morning by City Attorney Herbert McClammy:

Wilmington, N. C., July 8, 1912.

To the Honorable Mayor and Board of City Council:

Gentlemen:—At the request of the Mayor of the city I beg leave to submit the following report:

At the first meeting of the City Council after its election I had the honor of being elected as the chief legal adviser of the city of Wilmington, and proceeded to organize the present board under the present commission form of government. In this connection I desire to thank the Council for the assistance rendered by each member, together with the timely aid of the city clerk and treasurer whose counsel and advice I have always found wise, sober and timely, and with his knowledge of the financial condition of the city of Wilmington and his skill and ability as an accountant his assistance has been of incalculable value to me in the discharge of the duties incumbent upon this office.

The first work undertaken was to organize the Legal Department so that the many complications inherited from the old board that originally existed might be handled properly, and in this conection I desire to state that all law suits that have arisen since the adoption of the commission form of government existed before the Council took charge of the affairs of the city, with the exception of one suit, which is more of a personal suit than one against the municipal government.

The Sixth street bridge controversy was a legacy left by the old board that has brought untold trouble to the Legal Department of the city, and out of that complication the suit of Harriss has arisen, which is no wat issue and ready for trial. Another suit is that of Craig against the city for an alleged personal injury arising from an improperly constructed sidewalk, that case is also at issue and ready for trial.

The Gregg suit which was instituted long before the adoption of the commission form of government has been tried twice and a settlement reached which has met with the approval of this department. The only comment that I desire to make upon that suit is, that it was properly tried and the adjustment finally reached ought to be entirely satisfactory to every citizen of this community. The other suits of Hustelle and Alderman will be tried as soon ac complaints are filed and necessary parties made.

The suit of the New York Continental Jewell Filtration Company against the city of Wilmington is a suit involving $50,000, and has been instituted for an alleged violation of a patent right and will necessarily entail expense to the city in the proper defense of the same, as it will become necessary to make an examination of the correctness of the patents and consultations must take place between certain lawyers and business men in Philadelphia, which I recommend at as early date as practicable. The suit was brought in the Federal Court and the first Monday in August is the final date that the city will be allowed to answer.

The city of Wilmington, through this department, has instituted a large number of suits against delinquent tax payers, the result of which has been, as shown by the books of the city clerk and treasurer, a collection of $3,980.35 back taxes. The city clerk and treasurer has forwarded to this office the names of a large number of delinquent tax payers for the year 1911, which have been turned over to a justice of the peace and summons are now being issued against the delinquents for the recovery of these taxes. In addition thereto I shall take judgment against every other person whose name appears upon the tax books of the city so that the judgment may be docketed in the Superior Court of New Hanover county and settlement made directly with the city clerk and treasurer when execution issues. The placing of judgment of all of these claims against delinquents will relieve the city clerk and treasurer of keeping an extra set of books and will greatly facilitate the work in that department.

I desire to thank the City Council for having taken my advice in all legal matters that have arisen before the board for without the Council sustaining me in the legal positions taken this department could have accomplished but little. The sale of the $400,000 of bonds to the Southern National Bank and the complications threatened at that time might have been serious without following strictly the advice of the city attorney, and I think your acting upon his advice relieved a situation that threatened many complications. The city was enabled to dispose of its bonds in strict accordance with the street improvement act and street improvements were begun immediately after the sale of the bonds. This naturally entailed the drawing of a large number of long contracts and passing upon the legality of a large number of bonds, and in no case have we had any trouble arising under the bonds or contract that have been executed.

The Wilmington Sewerage Company has instituted a suit against the individual members of the City Council, the Board of Health and the municipal government, the complaint in this case has never been filed. I have carefully considered the rumors upon which this suit is based and I am satisfied that the only cause of action the Sewerage Company has is one for defamation of character, which of course, we would justify in our defense.

I desire to commend the action of the Assistant City Attorney whose services have been of incalculable value to this community, and his action and conduct in the prosecution of the violations of the law have met with the approval of this office.

The purchase of the plant of the Wilmington Sewerage Company has taxed the patience of this department, complication after complication, has arisen, and it looked at one time as if serious legal controversies would arise that would involve long litigated law suits, and if the Council had not sustained me in the position taken in the handling of this matter I am satisfied that there would have been numerous suits, the result of which could not have been foretold. I have no excuses to offer, nor have I any apologies to make for advising this board not to purchase the Wilmington Sewerage Company's plant, at and for the sum of $160,000, when the company failed to comply with the demand made by the city, as time has revealed the company is willing to settle for a lesser amount at a saving of $30,000 to the city and I am satisfied that within 60 days the city of Wilmington will own the Wilmington Sewerage Company's plant, and will be in possession and control of the same by the payment of $30,000 in cash to the company and mortgaging the plant for $100,000 with twenty years within which to pay off and discharge the debt. The city purchasing the plant for this amount has eliminated the Act of 1911, which was evidently passed to force the city to purchase at a price fixed by the Sewerage Company with no advantage to the city.

I want to commend the City Council in passing a resolution to remove obstructions in the streets and upon the sidewalks, and recommend that the law be strictly enforced, for the reason that discrimination in favor of one against another has a tendency to incite lawlessness, to create disturbances and to reflect upon the administration.

The object and purpose of the law is equal and exact justice to all, without fear or favoritism to any, so that the rich and poor alike may justly feel that the innocent shall have nothing to fear and the guilty but little to hope for. I strongly advise and urge the Council on behalf of the tax paying public to remove all obstructions that are now upon the streets and sidewalks, without respect to persons, for the expenditure of $400,000 upon the streets of the city justifies, in my opinion, such action by the board.

I desire to recommend to the board that action be taken so that property can be taxed at its fair valuation and eliminate the condition that now exists where property is assessed at $15,000 and the market value of the same is $105,000. The object and purpose of the tax laws of the country is a fair valuation of the property and it is unjust and unfair to the small free-holder for his property to be assessed in proportion to its value while more valuable property is assessed at less than its proportionate value. Of course, market conditions have some effect upon this situation, but if the property of Wilmington was assessed at 50 per cent. of its value as compared to its sale value the tax assessment would reach the enormous figure of more than $25,000,000 and tax rate would be less than one-half of what the present rate now is, and to this end I suggest that this board take up this question with our present representatives from this county at the next meeting of the General Assembly of North Carolina and remedy this evil.

Thanking each and every member of this Council individually for the confidence and trust they have reposed in me, and in strictly following the advice I have given in all matters that have arisen before this board, whether legal or otherwise, I have the honor to be with profound respect.

Very truly yours,
HERBERT McCLAMMY,
City Attorney.

BROTHERHOOD STAR COURSE.

The Orphean Male Quartette Will be a Feature Number.

A competent critic, before whom comes the leading lyceum taleht in the United States, goes so far as to say that there are only four great quartettes in the United States, and that the Orpheans are one of these.

This splendid male quartette has had phenomenal success for ten seasons and are more generously equipped than ever to please the public. They are versatile, artistic, capable of giving a widely diversified programme, consisting of vocal quartettes, horn quartettes, solos, illustrated songs, and impersonations. They have an extensive repertoire of vocal music both classic and humorous. Their voices blend in perfect harmony. An unbroken programme of vocal music and reading is by some considered monotonous, hence the Orpheans are introducing an instrumental feature, a brass quartette.

It looks now as if the entire seating capacity of Memorial Building will be taken by subscribers for season tickets. This is what the Brotherhood desired. They desired to place the price of a ticket so low that none would have to deny themselves the privilege of this premier series of attractions. All detail information can be secured from Mr. D. L. Latta, care of Alexander Sprunt & Son.

PROPOSITION MADE PUBLIC

Sewerage Co., Offers to Take $130,000 for Its Plant and Long Time Payments—Question Has Practically Been Settled.

Confirming in every detail the information given in The Star some days ago as to the price and terms agreed upon by the attorneys on either side, the tentative agreement, or ordinance, which will later be enacted into law, conveying the existing sewerage system from the Wilmington Sewerage Company to the city of Wilmington was read and discussed by the City Council yesterday at the regular session, which lasted four hours.

The question is apparently now settled, and unless unforeseen complications arise, which are always possible, especially in dealing with this particular matter. However, attorneys on both sides have hopes now that it is only a matter of a few weeks until the system will pass from the control of the sewerage company to the city. The price agreed to is $130,000, as stated in The Star last week. The city is to pay $30,000 at the time of the execution of the instrument giving it possession of the property. The sewerage company proposes to issue $100,000 worth of bonds, bearing rate of 5 per cent., which are to be known as first mortgage bonds. These are to be taken by the city, which will pay 5 per cent. interest. Any time after five years the city can take all the bonds. This, in a nutshell, and sheared of all its legal verbiage, is the proposition.

City Attorney Herbert McClammy and Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschau, called attention to several points in the tentative agreement, which, no doubt, will be agreed to by the bondholders. Iredell Meares, Esq., counsel for the bondholders, who was present, did not think the change suggested would in anywise affect the transaction.

The changes as suggested will be communicated at once to the bondholders at Philadelphia and they will advise Mr. Meares what further action to take. It is thought that within four or five weeks the city will be operating the plant and that inside of six weeks all the necessary papers will have been passed.

The meeting was called to order at 9:15 A. M. with Mayor Smith presiding and all members present ,as well as Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer; City Attorneys McClammy and Peschau; Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, and others. The following owners of property, whose buildings, steps or piazzas abutt on the sidewalk were heard: Mr. S. M. Boatwright, whose property is at Third and Dock streets; Mr. Eduard Ahrens, whose property is on Seventh, between Market and Princess; Mr. Geo. O. Gaylord, whose property is at Second and Orange streets; Mr. Jurgen Haar, southwest corner of Seventh and Princess streets; Mr. T. J. Gore, northeast corner of Water and Dock streets. They were told the proper department would look into the questions and report at a later meeting.

The Standard Oil Co., was granted permission to erect four large tanks for the storage of lubricating oil in the block bounded by Front and Second and Bladen and Brunswick streets. The tanks are to have 6,000 gallons capacity and are to be built on foundations seven feet high.

When the matter of the communication of Mr. B. F. Hall, received at the last meeting, with reference to the blowing of steam whistles in the city limits for so long a period in the early morning, was brought up several members of Council expressed the opinion that the blowing of the whistles is a nuisance and should be stopped. Greatest complaint was made against the cotton mill in the southern part of the city. It was decided to ask the owners to curtail the whistle blowing and if this does not have the desired effect some other measure will be resorted to, it was said.

The annual reports of the city attorney and city engineer were received covering in detail the work of their respective departments for the first 12 months of the present administration.

Councilman B. C. Moore inquired whether or not the city has a right to permit a local deputy sheriff to put a prisoner in the city prison without proper papers when the prisoner has been refused by the county jailor. City Attorney Herbert McClammy gave it as his opinion that the city could and ought to decline to take such prisoners, except, of course, in cases of emergency. After some discussion it was decided to leave to Councilman B. C. Moore and Geo. L. Peschau the matter of working out some plan of handling the prisoners.

There was a lively tilt between Councilman B. C. Moore and Councilman M. G. Tiencken with regard to some printing for the health department. Certain forms had been printed, 15,000 in number, by the order of the city clerk nad treasurer, whose duty it is under a former order to look after all printing for the government, that did not conform to the desires of the health department, so an order for blanks in accordance with the ideas of the head of the health department was given without it going through the usual channels. When the bill came in for the last printing, it was held up by Councilman Tiencken, although it was approved by Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety. Mr. Moore made the point that the treasury department had changed the forms for the health department without even consulting the department and that did not answer the purpose, and contended that the giving of the order for the additional printing was entirely without his province, notwithstanding the former ordinance, it came under the head of supplies and the form was identically the same as had been used for some months. Councilman Moore told Councilman Tiencken that he wanted him to understand that he was not to interfere with his (Mr. Moore's) department in any way. Councilman Tiencken explained that he had no desire or inclination to interfere with the health department, but that when a bill came to him improperly signed he would not O. K. it. The question of paying the bill for the extra printing was then put to a vote and carried, Mayor Smith casting the only dissenting vote on the ground that the order for the printing was given contrary to a former ordinance of the Council.

Councilman B. C. Moore inquired of Council why it did not give Mr. C. C. Harriss an outlet from his property on Hanover street, near Fifth. When the bridge over the tracks of the railroad company was built some months ago the property of Mr. Harriss was shut off to some extent, it is said, and he has endeavored to get the Council to arrange to give him an outlet or pay him damages. Suit has been started in Superior Court, but has never come to trial. The matter was left with Councilman P. Q. Moore with power to act.

Upon the recommendation of Councilman B. C. Moore it was decided to rent property on the river front, south of the city, to be used for a disposal plant for the city refuse. The property is to be leased from Mr. Geo. W. Kidder for 12 months at $25 a month. The sanitary stables now in the northeastern section are to be moved to that end of town. The property in question is said to be half a mile from anybody's residence. Two trips a night can be made with the carts to the southern section of the city, whereas only one trip can be made now.

A communication was received from the United States government calling attention to the appearance of the Bubonic plague in the West Indies and urging all the ports along the coast to take precautions to exterminate the rats which cause a spread of the disease. Rats carry bubonic plague in a majority of instances. There are fleas, Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, explained to Council, which live upon these rats, and these fleas, while they have not the plague, are "intermediary hosts" and persons whom they bite may be inoculated therewith. Dr. Nesbitt suggested that 500 or 100 rats be captured and that autopsies be performed upon them. He was strongly of the opinion that a crusade against the rat should be made. This is being done at Savannah and other ports. The following is the resolution adopted by the Council:

"Whereas, That the appearance of Bubonic plague in the West Indies has been brought to the attention of the United States to prevent its entry and spread through the several ports of the States and whereas it has been demonstrated that rats are its medium of spread, be it

"Resolved, That the extermination of rats in the city of Wilmington is of serious importance to health and that all citizens of the city use their efforts in aiding to exterminate them."

A letter was received from J. S. Funchess & Co., complaining of the condition of the private alley in the rear of the old Star office building. The clerk was instructed to notify the complainants that the alley is a private and not a public alley and therefore individuals and not the city are responsible for its condition. Council then began the consideration of the sewerage question, which consumed fully two hours, adjournment being taken at 1 o'clock.

The annual report of Mr. F. F. Pillett, the city engineer, covered in detail the work of his department, showing that for the year ending June 1st, 1912, there had been about seven miles of streets improved and that the amount expended was about $257,246.29.

SUNDAY TRAIN ON W., B. & S.

Gives Southport and Brunswick Citizens Opportunity to Visit Beach.

To meet the popular and widespread demand that has been manifested by Southport citizens and, in fact, from points all over Brunswick county, the management of the Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern Railroad has decided to put on a Sunday passenger train through the Summer season, and probably permanently if the demands warrant.

Beginning Sunday the train will leave Southport at 6:45 A. M., arriving in Wilmington at 8:30 o'clock. On the return trip it will leave Wilmington at 7:30 P. M., arriving at Southport at 9 o'clock. Stops will be made at all intermediate stations.

This will give the people of Southport and Brunswick county an opportunity to visit one of Wilmington's attractive seaside resorts on Sunday, when the large crowds always flock to the seashore. Mr. H. E. Goodwin, the genial traffic manager of the W., B. & S., stated yesterday that he and other officials of the road had been approached by hundreds of people since the regular schedule was inaugurated several weeks ago and asked to put on a Sunday train. The schedule will give visitors time to spend nearly the whole day at Wrightsville Beach.

The Sunday train will also furnish many sawmill and lumber men who make their homes in Wilmington and who are operating in Brunswick county at present, a quick and convenient manner of reaching home Sunday morning and spending the Sabbath day with their families.

Effective next Monday morning, the regular passenger over the W., B. & S. from Southport will leave that city at 6:45, instead of 6:15, as at present. The train will arrive in Wilmington at the usual hour. On the return trip on week days the train will leave Wilmington at 3:15 and arrive at Southport at 4:55 P. M.

The business of the new road has been very gratifying to the management, and the volume of both freight and passenger traffic since the inauguration of the regular schedule has been far above what was expected. If the business continues to grow it will not be long before a double daily service will be inaugurated.

UNUSUAL ACTION IS TAKEN

Magistrates Declare Dancy Lewis, Colored, to be an Outlaw—Officers Engaged in the Search for the Negro.

Acting on information contained in an affidavit of Policeman J. F. Jordan, to the effect that Dancy Lewis, colored did burglariously and feloniously break into and enter the home of Mrs. P. L. Bridgers, at night time, and steal and carry away a number of articles, Chief of Police John J. Fowler, acting in his capacity as a justice of the peace, and Justice Geo. Harriss, yesterday afternoon declared Dancy Lewis to be an outlaw.

This is the first time in a year or two that action of this kind has been taken, and it was only with a full knowledge of the man who is wanted that the two magistrates decided upon such a course. The negro is said to be a very dangerous character, and has been in trouble before.

A watch that was stolen from Mrs. Bridgers' residence on the occasion of the burglary, was recovered some days ago, and with it the officers obtained information which leads them to positively declare that Lewis was the man who entered the Bridgers' home.

Magistrates Harriss and Fowler met late yesterday afternoon and declared Lewis an outlaw, ordering him to surrender himself to the proper authorities of New Hanover county forthwith. The order has been published and posted on the Court House door, as required by law.

The action of the magistrates in outlawing Lewis makes it incumbent upon any good citizen who may know the negro or know his whereabouts to apprehend him, and, if he does not surrender, or in case of flight or resistance on his part, after he has been warned to surrender, they may shoot or slay him without being accused of any crime.

Members of the police force and deputies from the sheriff's office were engaged in the search for Lewis last night, but up to a late hour he had not been located.

PRESIDENT TAFT SIGNS BILL

Board of Education Gets Portion of Government Reservation

Members of the New Hanover County Board of Education were much gratified yesterday to receive word from Washington that President Taft had signed the bill which had passed the Senate and House donating 36 acres of the government reservation in the eastern part of the city to the Board of Education to be used as a site for a colored school, which, it is hoped, will embrace industrial features. The Board of Education will likely hold a meeting in the near future to determine upon plans for utilizing the property at the earliest opportunity. The idea is to dispose of the Williston school property and erect a new building on the property given by the government. Exclusive of streets there are about 22 acres in the tract of land given by the government to the Board of Education. J. O. Carr, Esq., chairman of the board, said last night that the board had not, of course, formulated any plans, but the general idea was to build a school on the property to take the place of the Williston school and to embrace industrial features. The time is growing so short it may not be possible to have the building ready for use this Fall. However, this and other questions relative to the matter will be considered by the board at a meeting to be held within a few days.

LECTURE AT MARINE HOSPITAL

Dr. Chas. W. Stiles Addresses Members of Sanitary Police Corps

The third of a series of lectures to the sanitary police corps and the members of the health department was given by Dr. Chas. W. Stiles at the United States Marine Hospital Tuesday night. His subject this time was soil pollution and amoebic dysentary and the lecture was illustrated with stereopticon views. At the termination of the stated lecture Dr. Stiles gave a talk on bubonic plague and the possibilities of infection of this port from Havana and Porto Rico. He urged upon the sanitary officers the necessity of a thorough collection of all trash and dirt, pointing out that accumulations of trash were usually rat harbors, and that rats also congregate in markets and stores where foodstuffs are exposed. He urged the necessity of killing the rats, and thus eliminating the danger of plague infection to a great extent.

INHUMAN TRATMENT

Overloaded and Poorly-Nourished Horses Fall In the Streets

The Star is asked to call the attention of the proper authorities to the palpably inhuman treatment of certain horses now used for draft purposes in the city, particularly in the hauling of brick under contract presumably for the street work on upper Market street. Only a few days ago attention was called to the collapse of a rickety old wagon on Princess street, the load of brick falling on the animal and making it necessary to kill him. Yesterday two other instances of horses falling on the street under similar conditions were cited and the unbearable heat at this season of the year, makes it imperative that something be done to curb this iniquity. It is stated that brick are being hauled on contract and that the teams owned by individuals are overloaded to the end that the profit on each load may be greater without regard to the poor beast. The condition calls for the most vigilant exercise of police duty and if the properly constituted authority of the city and county will not look after the situation, there should be a call for a reorganization of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

NEGROES RESTING EASY

Wounded Men Will Probably Recover —Everett Still Missing

Albert Hurst and Scott Murphy, the two negroes who were shot at Macomber's station Tuesday night by a negro believed to have been John Quince Everett, were reported to be resting very well at the James Walker Memorial Hospital last night. It was stated that Hurst, who was the more seriously wounded, has a very fair chance to recover, following the operation that was performed immediately after he was brought to the institution. Murphy, who only suffered a flesh wound, is regarded as in no danger unless blood poisoning should set in.

City and county officers kept up a vigilant watch for John Everett yesterday, but they failed to find any clue that might lead to his whereabouts. They are not discouraged, however, and still hope to land him behind the bars.

PI KAPPA PHI BOYS BANQUET

College Men Enjoyed Delightful Affair at Hanover Inn Last Night— Business Sessions Held— Souvenir Dance.

Harking back to college days and breathing the true fraternal spirit, 25 or 30 members of the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity, which is holding a special session at Wrightsville Beach, last night gathered around the banquet boards at the Hanover Inn and it was early this morning before the happy affair came to an end and the boys "hiked" it across the car tracks to "Fraternity Hall", which is in undisputed possession of the young men during their stay at the resort.

The dining room was prettily decorated in the colors of the fraternity, gold and white, and in the center of the room suspended from the ceiling to the floor was a large banner bearing the inscription, "Pi Kappa Phi". The dining room has never been the scene of a more enjoyable affair nor one that will live longer in the minds of the participants. The menu was one that could not be surpassed, the service was well nigh perfect, and the speeches—well, they were interesting, inspiring, eloquent, at least some of them were. Mr. Simon Fogarty, of Charleston, S. C., was toastmaster and he performed the duties assigned to him in a most pleasing and graceful manner. Responses to toasts were made by Mr. Dave Hardy, of San Francisco; Mr. John D. Carroll, Columbia, Grand Secretary; Mr. J. C. Barry, Moore, S. C.; Mr. John D. Hamer, Spartanburg, S. C.; Mr. Wm. M. Shaw, Jr., Wilmington; Mr. W. H. Monckton, Jr., Columbia; Mr. Chester Proutly, San Francisco; Mr. Theo. Monroe, Marion, S. C.; Mr. R. E. Moody, Dillon, S. C.; Mr. Wm. Fogarty, Charleston, S. C., and others.

Two business sessions were held yesterday with Mr. John D. Carroll, of Columbia, presiding. The first session was from 10 A. M. to 12:30 P. M. and the afternoon session was from 2:30 to 4 P. M. A number of matters of peculiar interesst to members of the fraternity were discussed and acted upon.

There will be two session again today, this morning and afternoon, and at one of the sessions today the next meeting place will probably be selected. No matter where the boys go next year it is a safe bet that they will not enjoy themselves more than their stay at Wrightsville Beach.

Following the afternoon session a boating party will be given by members of the fraternity in honor of the visiting young ladies who came to participate in the open social affairs. The party will go out at 4 o'clock and hope to return about 7 o'clock. This evening the visitors will be guests of the Tidewater Power Company at a souvenir dance at Lumina, which will be the concluding event of the gathering. The boys will then "break camp," so to speak, and will begin leaving on the early trains Friday for their homes, each singing the praises of Wrightsville Beach and declaring that they have never had a better time anywhere in the same number of days.

Among the young ladies arriving at the Hanover Inn yesterday to participate in the social affairs were Miss Lucile Best, of Warsaw; Miss Elizabeth Howard, of Tarboro, and Miss Ruth Shaw, of Wilmington. Several other young ladies arrived earlier in the week.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Only Two Defendants Tried—One Was Sent to the Roads.

Sam Carter, colored, was the more unlucky of the only two defendants before the Recorder yesterday morning. Sam had looked long upon the wine when it was red and had become exuberant and hilarious thereby; in fact, he had been gloriously and riotously drunk, intoxicated and inebriated. He was given a sentence of 30 days on the county roads, and on a charge of vagrancy another 30 days was tacked on, making a total term of two months on the county roads.

Geo. Holland, a young negro charged with the larceny of a purse containing about $6 from Mr. G. L. Young at Mrs. Alderman's boarding house, was found not guilty. No evidence could be introduced to show that the negro had taken the missing money.

LIE WAS PASSED.

Representative Buchanan Critizised Minority Leader Mann.

Washington, July 10.—The "lie" was passed without blodshed in the House today. Representative Buchanan, of Illinois, Democrat, criticised Minority Leader Mann sharply for his alleged hostility to labor legislaton, addng that Mr. Mann had resorted to filibustering and other methods to block the appointment of a commission to investigate the Taylor system of scientific shop management. Mr. Mann retorted that he had fought it only because Mr. Buchanan sought the creation of a "packed" commission, the leadership of which he was seeking himself. Mr. Buchanan made no immediate reply, but later rose to a question of personal privilege.

The charge is "untrue," he said. "If my colleague does not wish to correct it he will show a desire to separate himself from the trust, which he frequently does on the floor of this house."

There were cries of "no, no" and several hisses from both sides of the House. Mr. Mann declined even to look in Mr. Buchanan's direction.

Twenty-one Years as Pastor

This week's Presbyterian Standard in its church notes of the North Carolina Synod, says: "Wilmington—St. Andrew's.—At the June communion twenty-two new members were welcomed, received since March communion. The pastor completed twenty-one years of the last Sabbath in June. In that time 884 members have been received and the church has steadily grown."

ROYALISTS STORM TOWN

Portuguese Rebels Penerate Portuguese Frontier from Spain

Lisbon, July 10.—The Portuguese royalist rebels today took possession of the town of Cabeceiras de Basto. The government troops are preparing to bombard the town. The monarchists, commanded by Homem Christo, penerated Portugal from Ciudad Rodrigo, Spain, and according to the last accounts, are marching on the frontier fortress of Almeida.

The authorities here have requested the newspapers to publish an appeal to the patriotism of the people and requesting them to remain faithful to the republic and not to start manifestations calculated to disturb public order.

The cruiser Aimirante Reis went ashore near the coast of Espozende, but was later refloated. It was at first reported that the battleship Vasco de Gama had gone aground.

The royalists played a ruse on the republican troops today, but in the end it cost them dearly. They returned to the city of Chaves, in the Province of Tras-Os-Montes, while being pursued to the town of Montalegre, in the same province. They arrived unsuspected by the republicans and bombarded Chaves with their newly acquired artillery bombs. The republican troops discovered their error later and returned to defend the besieged town.

The royalists, who outnumbered the republicans by three to one, consisted of two united bands headed by Capt. Henrique de Paiva Couceiro and Captain Camacho. They retreated slowly, leaving a number of dead and wounded on the field, and finally disappeared into the mountains, some of them crossing the Spanish frontier and even continuing to fire upon the republican troops. The republicans lost several killed and wounded, including two officers.

How to Keep Face Young and Attractive

(National Hygienic Review.)

The way to ward off old age is not to fear it, not to allow one's self to be oppressed by the dread of advancing years. Use only legitimate preventives and avoid trying experiments with preparations not indorsed by physicians. An entirely safe and very effective way to keep the complexion young looking and beautiful is to apply ordinary mercolized wax at bedtime, using it like cold cream, washing it off in the morning. This gradually absorbs the withered, faded cuticle, which is replaced by the more youthful, pink-tinted underskin. One ounce of this wax, to be had at any drug store, is enough to completely rejuvenate a worn-out complexion.

Wrinkles and flabbiness of cheek and chin, the first signs of advancing age, may be lessened by a simple, harmless preparation made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel. It is used as a face bath.

COTTON REACHES NEW LEVEL

At the Opening the Market Advanced 24 Points Over Previous Day's Close—Closed at Small Net Gain

New York, July 10.—The high point of cotton was raised to a new level today, the market advancing 23@24 points over yesterday's close. Most of this occurred around the opening when the market was influenced by strong cables, active outside buying and a number of very bullish crop reports, particularly from the Memphis district. In fact crop news today was less favorable than at any time since the real advance started a week ago. Texas came in for a good deal of criticism, owing to hot, dry weather, and boll weevil complaints were heard from Mississippi and Alabama. It was noted, however, that in the forecast generally fair conditions were expected in these two States, with local showers elsewhere in the Eastern belt, leading to the belief that the long continued wet spell might be on the verge of breaking up. With this in mind, and actuated also by the fact that big supporting orders seemed to have become exhausted, with the opening in the morning, bear traders became increasingly aggressive after the first hour, and succeeded in forcing the market off 15 to 16 points from top on new crop positions, the closing being steady, at 4 to 11 points net advance.

The strong spot situation with Southern markets generally ¼c. higher, coupled with the obvious uncertainty of crop conditions, particularly in Texas, prevented any violent break. Receipts, 1,117, against 2,210 last week and 655 last year. Why is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth but do dissolve in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic The Standard for 20 years, 50.

Crop Report Serves As Lever to Boost Issues—Steel Corporation Publishes Statement—Losses at Close

New York, July 10.—The government crop report published late yesterday was used as a lever with which to move prices upward in the early part of today's stock market session. The returns seemed to convey the impression that the more important cereals promised exceedingly well, and it was generally assumed that further improvement has set in since the official figures were compiled.

There was also a brisk rise in Amalgamated Copper, based in a measure on improved copper conditions abroad.

One of the few important features of the day was the publication of the United States Steel Corporation's statement of unfilled tonnage on hand June 30th. This showed an increase of 56,363 tons over the preceding month, the grand total being 5,807,346 tons, a figure which only once has been exceeded in almost three years.

Trading in steel was relatively large and its undertone was strong at the outset, but later all leading issues sold off precipitately, lowest prices being registered in the last hour to the accompaniment of considerable activity.

The bond market was lower and generally irregular. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,728,000. United States governments were unchanged on call. Total sales today, 513,000 shares.

We saw exposed for sale on our streets today a wagon load of Irish potatoes that were as fine as we have ever seen raised in this section. Of immense size and white and mealy, they were beauties. These potatoes were grown in lower Cumberland by a boy 15 years old, Norwood Butler, son of Mr. William Butler. Norwood is more truly a benefactor than if he were the champion baseball pitcher of the country.—Fayetteville Observer.

MORE PLAGUE IN CUBA.

New Case Reported at Santiago—Passengers Detained.

Washington, July 10.—One new case of Bubonic plague was reported today from Cuba and none from Porto Rico, at the Public Health Hospital Service.

Three steerage passengers on the steamer Chalmette who had come from the plague zone in Havana, were taken off that vessel today at the New Orleans quarantine station. They will be detained until there is absolute assurance that they are not infected. All on board the vessel were well, and she was permitted to proceed to New Orleans. The steamer had not touched the wharf at Havana, and none of the crew had been ashore.

Surgeon Stoner, chief medical officer at Ellis Island, today telegraphed to Washington that the work of destroying rats along the New York water front was well under way. Similar word came from Galveston, Tex., and other ports.

Surgeon General Blue, of the Public Health Service, today approved a regulation to prohibit passengers from Havana entering any port in Florida, unless they have been detained seven days at the Prisconia quarantine station. This was done because of the short distance between Florida ports and Havana. Passengers from Havana to New York or New Orleans are from three to five days en route.

MAKE DEAD MAN LEADER.

Striking Steamship Firemen Try a Weird Example.

New York, July 10.—A weird way to win additions to their ranks was adopted by striking steamship firemen here today when they virtually made a dead man a leader in their cause.

The body of Andreas Dodiguez, a striker, who was shot to death in a riot Monday night, was taken from the hearse just after hundreds of strikers had attended his funeral at strike headquarters and it was borne on the shoulders of men for more than two miles through the water front section. The empty hearse led the procession and following the bearers of the casket there were 80 empty carriages, the mourners having refused to ride. A throng of thousands joined in the procession, men and women struggling along without formation behind the leaders. Some one started a funeral chant in Spanish, and as most of the strikers are of that nationality, they took up the wail all along the line. There were new disorders in connection with the strikes today. Policeman Alexander Bennett, a young officer, was perhaps fatally injured while trying to disperse a crowd of strikers on Market street. Steamship officials continued to assert that their vessels are traveling on schedule time with strikebreaking crews.

Washington, July 10.—President Taft has signed the joint resolution extending the thanks of Congress to Capt. Arthur Henry Rostron and the officers and crew of the Carpathia for their heroic efforts at the wreck of the Titanic and the resolution appropriating $1,350,000 for the military maneuvers of the organized militia.

McKENNA TO RESCUE.

Pulled Out Roll to Feed Chairman Hilles' Guests.

Washington, July 10.—"Pat" McKenna, who guards the doors to the offices of President Taft and Secretary Hilles, and who knows more prominent politicians and statesmen than most persons, unconsciously became the host at luncheon yesterday of W. M. Barnes, Jr., and S. S. Koenig, president of the New York county committee. Mr. Hilles was the general host in fact, but Mr. McKenna was the financier of the feast, somewhat to the chagrin of his chief, and much to the amusement of a few spectators who witnessed the deal.

Mr. Hilles, just chosen chairman of the Republican National Committee, Mr. Barnes and Mr. Koenig left the executive offices just as one of the President's big automobiles came to the door to await their orders. The New Yorkers stepped in, followed by Mr. Hilles, who began a perfunctory search of his trousers pockets as he sat down. As his hand hurried from pocket to pocket he looked more and more surprised and his face grew redder than a half week's vacation on Long Island had made it. When it finally dawned upon the President's secretary that he was "broke" he beckoned to a White House policeman and sent him post haste for Pat.

"Pat", he whispered to the doorkeeper in a stage whisper, that every one heard, "let's have some money, I want to take these gentlemen to lunch."

"Pat" lugged out a bundle of bills that would have done credit to the backer of a Presidential campaign, peeled off a big one, handed it to Mr. Hilles and blushingly retired, while the luncheon party whirred away to the table.

"Don't you newspaper men print that," said Pat as he entered the White House office.

WILSON TALKS TO MANY.

Nominee Confers With Building and Loan Men—Returns Home.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 10.—Governor Wilson talked for half an hour to 500 men this afternoon on the subject of working today for results tomorrow and on the evil of individual and National extravagance.

The Governor's audience was composed of delegates to the National convention of the United States Building and Loan League and the address he delivered was one of welcome, on behalf of New Jersey. Earlier in the afternoon he told 5,000 residents of Atlantic City and their friends that their town was in need of moral pride; that a man was ashamed to be caught in a dirty trick, and that a community ought to be ashamed to be caught in a dirty practice. This was at the corner stone laying of the new Y. M. C. A. building.

Sea Girt, N. J., July 10.—Governor Wilson reached here at 7 o'clock tonight from Atlantic City. At his Summer home he found Senator Gardner, of Maine, awaiting him. The Governor discussed with him the general political situation and was given the Senator's assurance that Maine would be found still in the Democratic ranks on election day. Harry Garber, former National committeeman from Ohio and John T. McGraw, National committeeman from West Virginia, sent word to the Governor today that they would call on him tomorrow.

Commenting on reports from Washington that Speaker Clark and House Leader Underwood might visit him here the latter part of this week, the Governor said that he hardly expected to see them before the adjournment of Congress, but would, of course, be glad to have them call at any time.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

Gastonia Man Drinks Laudanum, Leaving Two Letters Behind

Gastonia, N. C., July 10.—J. B. Helms, aged 24, a white man who came to Gastonia the day before the Fourth from Newells, Mecklenburg county, to work in the Gaston Cotton Manufacturing Company's mill, is in a serious condition at the city hospital as the result of taking an ounce of laudanum, apparently with suicidal intent. When discovered at his boarding house near the mill he was in an unconscious condition and heroic work was required to bring him around. He left two letters, one addressed to his father and one addressed to a young lady, presumably his sweetheart, but the contents of these letters have not been made public. It is stated by persons who probably are in a position to know that Helms was temporarily deranged as the result of a lick he received on the head some time ago.

CALL ON WILSON

Congressmen Page, Webb and Pou Going to Seagirt

Washington, July 10.—Representatives Webb, Page and Pou will go to Seagirt within the next few days for a conference with Governor Wilson. The visit, it is understood, has little political significance, the North Carolina Congressmen merely desiring to pay their respects to the Democratic Presidential nominee and to assure him of their support during the coming campaign.

A movement is on foot to run a special train to Seagirt before the present session of Congress adjourns, which will carry some 300 or 400 Democratic Congressmen and Senators who are anxious to tell Governor Wilson that they believe he will sweep the country in November.

Charleston, S. C., July 10.—Postmasters of South Carolina and the South Carolina Pharmaceutical Association opened annual conventions on the Isle of Palms today. Routine business and addresses are occupying the attention of the bodies.

DOUBLES ITS CAPACITY

Charlotte Cold Storage Plant Meeting With Great Success

Charlotte, N. C., July 10.—The management of the Merchants' Cold Storage and Commission Company yesterday let the contract for the doubling of the capacity of the plant at College and Third streets and the work will begin as soon as the material can be laid down here. The contract provides for the completion of the new part of the plant by September 1st of the present year, to enable the company to take care of the business which is coming.

The cold storage plant opened for business about the first of June of the present year and at the meeting of the board of directors of the company yesterday it was shown that additional capacity is already needed and at that time the contract for the installation of the insulation was let to the Armstrong Cork Company, of Pittsburg, Pa., the same company that installed the insulation in the present plant. The walls are as is well known, built of brick and is lined again with cross sections of cork, and then plastered. This work will again be done by experts sent here by the Armstrong Cork Company.

The contract for the machinery was also let at yesterday's meeting to the Frick Company, the same concern that installed the machinery in the present plant.

The success of the Merchants' Cold Storage and Commission Company had been notable from its opening and a trip through the plant is most interesting. A test of butter is now being made in one of the rooms, and that which has been on storage more than a month is just as fresh and sweet as it had been churned today.

The plant is divided into a number of rooms, each for separate use. In one is stored furs and in this is now to be seen thousands of dollars worth of furs owned by people in this city and sent here from nearby towns where there is no cold storage plant.

Likewise, produce, butter, eggs and the like from North and South Carolina towns, is to be found in this plant, centering in Charlotte where the storage facilities are to be had.

To make room for just as much again of this sort of stuff as they can now care for the management has determined to fit up the entire basement of the building for use and has required that it shall be ready for service by September 1st.

TO DEPOSE OROZCO

Mexican Rebel Leader May Be Replaced By La Fuent

Juarez, Mex., July 10.—When Gen. Pascual Orozco, Jr., arrives here he must face dissatisfaction in the ranks of his soldiers. A new rebel junta has been organized and secretly has been working among the troops of the rebel army with the idea of persuading them to abandon the leadership of Orozco and recognize Gen. David de LaFuent as military chief with Emilio Vasquez as civil head of the rebel cause.

The Vasquista sympathizers, originators of the present revolt against Madero's leadership, which was appropriated by Orozco, who repudiated Vasquez Gomez, have risen again and the mutinous spirit conspicuous among the rebels of late may be traced to Vasquista influences. It is understood that the Vasquista leaders will meet in a few days in San Antonio, Texas, and consider plans for deposing Orozco.

The Vasquistas have been anxious ever since Emilio Vasquez was overthrown by Orozco to assume charge of the revolution, but not until recent events when Orozco began to meet with military reverses, have they found encouraging response in the rebel ranks.

General Orozco was expected early in the day. His stay in Juarez, it was declared, would be short. His next headquarters probably will be at Casas Grandes, 140 miles southwest on the Mexican Northwestern Railroad, from where rebel invasion of the State of Sonora will be directed.

B. P. O. E. GRAND LODGE

No Action Taken As to Lodge Goat—Other Business

Portland, Oregon, July 10.—Robert W. Brown, of Louisville, Ky., Past Grand Exalted Ruler, Benevolent and Protective Odder of Elks, will remain chief justice of the grand forum for the coming year. The place on the board made vacant by the death of John F. Donovan, of Milwaukee, Wis., will be taken by Edward W. Righter, of New Orleans, present chairman of the judiciary committee. The appointments have been made by Grand Exalted Ruler Sullivan and confirmed by the Grand Lodge.

The committe ritual recommended in its report that no action be taken in the matter of the lodge goat. A year ago, at the instigation of the big city lodges, the goat was abolished as part of the initiation ceremonies on the ground that it lacked dignity, but lodges in many small cities objected.

The committee on preservation of the Elk in its report today stated that the Federal government had appointed $7,000 for the preservation of present herds and that bills are pending in Congress for further protection of the animal.

FIRE FLIES SCARE ITALIANS

Swarm Around Nitroglycerine and Cause Fear of Explosion

Aetna, Ind., July 10.—Thousands of lightning bugs caused terror among workmen employed in the powder mills here last night, following a thunderstorm.

The little insects, driven from the Kankakee marshes by the storm, settled down upon a tank with several hundred gallons of nitroglycerine. The employes saw the bilillantly illuminated bugs near the tank and immediately scattered, running terror-stricken in all directions in the fear that the tank would explode.

It required nearly an hour for foremen of the mills to dispel the fears of the employes and induce them to return to work.

Theatres in Havana, according to an exchange, have a system by which patrons pay for a seat for one act, and, if pleased, pay for another act, and so on to the end of the performance. By this method a playgoer may keep on trying different theatres till he finds a play to his liking and spend for his various "samples" only the price that he would pay for one ticket according to our plan.

PROGRESSIVES IN CONTROL.

Chicago Convention Declared Fraudulent—Platform Turned Down.

Des Moines, Ia., July 10.—Efforts of Governor B. F. Carroll, a Taft adherent, to have the Republican State Convention today pass a resolution endorsing the platform adopted at the National convention failed, being tabled 773 to 342, and his effort to eliminate from the report of the majority of the resclutions committee the section condemning as fraudulent the Chicago convention, also failed. Governor Carroll was a member of the resolutions committee, but the majority report, as adopted by the convention, was written by the Progressives, who controlled the convention throughout.

Neither Taft nor Roosevelt was mentioned in the resolutions adopted which commend "Republican achievements and endorse progressive policies."

Governor Carroll precipitated a demonstration for Roosevelt which lasted for more than 20 minutes, when he said that the National Republican platform "was not tainted", but was adopted regardless of whether the delegates were aligned with Taft or Roosevelt.

The resolutions embodied in the majority report of the committee were adopted without roll call. They included a request that the Legislature submit the question of votes for women to the people and endorsed direct nomination of President, Vice President and United States Senators.

The committee declined to include in its report the suggestion of Senator Albert B. Cummins for a commission to investigate the manner in which President Taft was re-nominated at Chicago.

GEORGIA TO BE DRYER.

House Passes Drastic Prohibition Bill by Big Majority.

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—The Alexander-Tippins substitute for the famous "Near Beer" bill, one of the most drastic prohibition measures in the history of the State, was adopted today by the House of the General Assembly by a vote of 129 to 42.

Supporters of the measure in the House express confidence that it will meet with little opposition in the Senate. The vote by which the measure was adopted today also was sufficient to pass the bill in the event that it should be vetoed by Governor Brown.

As adopted by the House the Alexander-Tippins bill prohibits the sale of beverages containing more than one-half of one per cent. of alcohol anywhere in the State of Georgia. In addition to this provision, which was aimed at the near beer saloons, stringent measures are provided which practically will put the ban on locker clubs of every description throughout the State.

By the provisions governing locker clubs their control is left practically in the hands of the Governor of the State. Provision also is made for the prosecution of officials of the clubs for perjury in the event of false testimony regarding the dispensation of beverages containing more than the prescribed amount of alcohol. Several amendments to the measure were introduced, including one to leave the matter to be decided by the popular vote of the citizens of the State. All, however, were defeated.

WOULD INDICT HARRIMAN.

Effort Was Made to Hurt His Political Chances.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 10.—During cross examination today of Job Harriman, a Socialist leader of National prominence, in the bribery trial of Clarence S. Darrow, it developed that an effort had been made by political enemies to indict Harriman for complicity in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Tmes building, months after the McNamara brothers had confessed and since the Darrow trial began.

No one in the court room apparently was more startled than Harriman when he was questioned by the district attorney as to his knowledge of the dynamiting of the Times plant. The district attorney declared in reply to an objection by the defense that he was seeking to show that Harriman's relations with the dynamiters were "more damaging than those of the attorney, and that his connection with the jury bribery trial was more akin to that of the defendant."

This statement was made after Harriman had been asked concerning conversations with Edward Adams Cantrell and Frank B. Merrian, in which he was alleged to have admitted prior knowledge that the Times building was to have been dynamited.

Harriman, according to the statement read by District Attorney Fredericks, knew the men had gone before the grand jury with such.

PROBABILITY OF STRIKE.

Textile Workers at New Bedford, Mass., Object to Grading.

New Bedford, Mass., July 10.—New Bedford today faces the probability of a strike of weavers which might result in closing of the mills and throwing out of employment of some 25,000 cotton mill operatives.

Recently the cotton manufacturers posted notices announcing a system of grading soon to be put in operation. The weavers voted last night to notify the manufacturers that unless this notice is removed before noon Saturday they will not report for work next Monday. The union has the endorsement of the textile council which represents spinners, carders, loom fixers, twisters and engineers, as well as weavers.

Agua Preita, Mex., July 10.—Gen. Giuseppe Garibaldi, grandson of the famous Italian Liberator, has been recruited by the Mexican government to repel the rebel invasion of the State of Sonora. The incident revealed the serious plight of the government defensive campaign in Sonora.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters gives her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

THE TELEGRAPH FIGHT

Postal Alleges Discrimination by Telephone Operators—Decision

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, July 10.—Charles C. Adams, vice president of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, being asked in regard to the decision which the Public Service Commission at Albany handed down late yesterday afternoon in regard to the New York Telephone Co., a Bell company, diverting Postal business to the Western Union and discriminating in the service rendered to the Postal as compared wth the Western Union, said: "We, of course, are gratified that the Public Service Commission has stopped this abuse and has stopped it summarily. Hereafter, the Western Union will not be able to gather in all the floating telegraph business by monopolizing the word, "Telegram," a call word over the telephone. A very important feature of the decision is the telephone company is ordered not to allow its telephone operators to give any advice to the public as to which telegraph company to patronize or to designate or to direct which company shall get the telegram. We trust that now that the Bell Telephone companies will direct their operators to stop favoring the Western Union and diverting the Postal telegraph business to the Western Union. If it is not stopped we shall keep the fight agoing."

NEWFOUNDLAND CABLE

Commercial Cable Company Wins A Victory Over Government

(Special Star Telegram.)

London, July 10.—The Privy Council of the House of Lords decided today that an important contract between the Commercial Cable Company and the government of Newfoundland, of February, 1909, is valid and binding on the Newfoundland government. It was a contract entered into by the administration of Sir Robert Bond, before his government was turned out, and that of Sir Edward Morris installed. Under the contract, the Commercial Cable Company laid two cables to Newfoundland and broke up the cable monopoly that had existed in Newfoundland for 40 years. Upon the Morris administration coming into power, it repudiated the contract. The Supreme Court of Newfoundland sustained that repudiation, but the House of Lords now reverses that decision, with costs to be paid by the Newfoundland government.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED

Involuntary Bankruptcy Petition Filed Against Lumber Company

Augusta, Ga., July 10.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States Court here today by creditors of the Perkins Manufacturing Company, one of the largest lumber manufacturing concerns in Georgia. George E. Toale and John P. Mulherin have been named receivers. It is stated that endorsements by this company of the notes of the Perkins Lumber Company, of Savannah, and Hagan, Ga., precipitated the present action in bankruptcy.

The creditors asking that the concern be placed in the hands of receivers, were the American Glucose Company, of Boston, and Wolfe & Company, of Philadelphia.

The assets of the concern are estimated at $450,000 and the liabilities at $350,000.

The plant is to be operated by the receivers until the matter is finally disposed of in the bankruptcy court.

Roanoke, Va., July 10.—At a meeting here tonight of followers of the Roosevelt third party movement, it was decided to hold a mass convention in this city July 30th for the purpose of selecting a delegation to cast Virginia's 12 votes in the proposed Chicago convention, and to name Progressive electors.
